

Borrow or lend

1. Could you _____ me some money, please?
2. You may _____ my bike, but be careful.
3. Could I _____ your cup?
4. Will your mother _____ you some money?
5. Will you _____ me your umbrella till tomorrow?
6. Who did you _____ it from?
7. How often do you _____ books from the library?

Hear or listen

1. Hey John! Can you _____ that sound?
2. _____. There's someone at the door.
3. Can't you _____ the baby crying?
4. Sorry, I wasn't really _____.
5. That's good to _____.
6. Have you _____ of the accident on Hornby street?
7. The students _____ the teacher carefully.

Look, see, watch

1. You can't _____ far in this fog.
2. It _____ like rain, doesn't it?
3. Oh, yes. I _____ what you mean.
4. _____ out for pickpockets.
5. Hey, what's wrong? You really _____ unhappy.
6. He _____ TV in the evenings.
7. You can _____ up a new word in the dictionary.

Say, tell

1. Let me _____ you something.
2. Forget everything I just _____.
3. You don't need to _____ us that.
4. He didn't _____ a word.
5. What did Eric _____ when he saw the new bike?
6. She _____ her name was Sue.
7. Why didn't you _____ that before?

Make, do

1. Can you _____ me a favour?

2. It's always hard to _____ a right decision.
3. Never give up. _____ your best!
4. I've _____ quite a few mistakes in the exam.
5. I don't like when people _____ fun of me.
6. I like to _____ shopping in my spare time.
7. Have you _____ your homework?

Bring, take

1. Could you _____ me some water, please?
2. _____ this book to the library, please.
3. He is _____ out the garbage now.
4. Mike often _____ flowers when he comes home.
5. Can you _____ the car to the repair shop on Wednesday?
6. When you come to the party, don't forget to _____ something to drink.
7. The pants are tight. I have to _____ them back to the store.