Scenario re: Business Vaccination Passports

Retail Employee: Can I see your proof of vaccination please?

Good citizen: No thank you, that's private information that I do not wish to share.

Retail Employee: I'm going to have to ask you leave.

Good citizen: What you're doing is illegal under the criminal code and the Canadian Bill of Rights section 1 (a) and 1 (b). I'd like to continue shopping / eating please.

Employee: You're trespassing, and I will call the police if you don't leave.

Good Citizen: The trespass to property act for a business open to the public does not trump the Canadian Bill of Rights. I came here to eat, drink, etc; I'm not looking to cause a disturbance and I will come and go in the same manner as everyone else who has public access here today.

You cannot stay when they tell you to leave. You can follow up with Liability but you have to leave or you're going to get charged and you can't defend yourself.

Section 25 (1) of the Criminal Code of Canada states that "Everyone who is required or authorized by law to do anything in the administration or enforcement of the law as a private person, peace officer or public offer or by virtue of his office is, if he acts on reasonable grounds, justified in doing what he is required or authorized to do an in using as much force as is necessary for that purpose". In this case, you are a private citizen enforcing government mandates. As stated, any enforcement is covered under the criminal code of Canada and is regulated by the Canadian Bill of Rights.

Under the Canadian Bill of Rights, section 1(a) states "the right of the individual to life, liberty, security of the person and enjoyment of property, and the right not to be deprived thereof except by due process of law." 1(b) states "the right of the individual to equality before the law and the protection of the law" You are denying me service while others are being served. This is not equality before the law. It's also illegal for you to ask me for my medical history under the Personal Information Protection Act in 2000.)

And enforcement of this bylaw is a criminal offence under sections; CCC 265 (1), (3) - Assault, CCC 346(1) - Extortion, CCC 264.1(1) - Uttering Threats and/or CCC 319(1) Public Incitement of Hate. And therefore, could be reported as such causing criminal charges against me.
