

She Thrives

private business & matrescence coaching

with Nicole Pasveer

Are you a curious and intentional mother entrepreneur ready to awaken beyond conditioning, let go of overwhelm, and finally THRIVE in both business and motherhood?

Thrive: to grow + flourish

Entrepreneurship and motherhood throw you into the unspoken cycles of creation and invite you to deepen your feminine embodiment

Both serve as a catalyst for massive personal development and growth

You don't need to navigate either alone

She Thrives is a 1-1 portal to unravel, meet + expand your edges, and come out more embodied and in tune with your vision

In this space, I support you to find yourself in motherhood while you birth (or rebirth) the foundations of an aligned, regenerative, online and heart-centred biz 🌹

⚠️ BEWARE ⚠️

Consider this a sacred portal. Once you enter, you will not come out the same!

Go from overwhelmed, middle of the night scrolling, and shoulding all over yourself to / actually can't wait to get this done to-do list

Go from signing up for every free business workshop or pdf template you get your hands on (that's just collecting dust in your inbox) to confidently trusting your creative urges and tapping into your inner genius before outsourcing to your fave marketing influencer

Go from feeling like being present with your kids versus showing up for your biz is a constant ultimatum to creating systems and building capacity to mother consciously and be a passionate embodied entrepreneur

The women who work with me desire to:

- create from soul, not ego
- find balance between strategy and intuition
- experience organic, sustainable, burnout proof growth and play with cashmere-to-your-nervous-system kind of marketing strategies/systems
- easefully and joyfully attract and serve clients from a place of overflow, not neediness or scarcity

These women are already working through....

- ☑ increasing their capacity for abundance and opening themselves up for receiving
- ☑ uncovering and reclaiming their voice to embody unapologetic self expression, and fully embrace their weirdness so they stop diluting themselves online
- ☑ exploring their sense of self and spirituality

And they know that:

1. Thriving in motherhood is their birth rite AND so is a successful and regenerative biz
2. Their body holds the wisdom

The depths we might explore together within this container:

- unlearning and detaching from social contracts
- healing and nurturing relationship to money
- discerning between obligation and desire
- nervous system hygiene tools
- cultivating safe self expression and authenticity both online and in-person
- exploring matrescence and gaining a deeper understanding of Self
- using nature and the body as a framework
- integrating soul care as an easeful daily practice
- reorienting to play + pleasure
- And soooooo much more 🦄

Are you ready to step into your God-given purpose, with devotion and pleasure as both, mother and entrepreneur?

What women are saying after working with me:

“Nicole is one of the most compassionate, curious, and supportive women I know. She creates a felt sense of safety for me to express myself authentically and freely, no matter what we're talking about or doing. She is actively doing the inside out work to unlearn so much conditioning we as women and mothers receive. She inspires me to show up messy in business and in life, without needing all of the details. She leads by example, listening to her intuitive nudges, and embodies what she offers to others. I'm grateful to have her in my life as a friend, colleague, and coach. Thank you for all that you are, all that you do, and for who you're becoming, Nicole. It's an honor to be in your presence.”

— Brittany

“Nicole has a gift for intuitively knowing what and how to give feedback that is both practically helpful, but also always pointing you back/bringing you back home to yourself. The energy she brings to our calls and even in the voxer group is palpable and always encouraging. She has a way of validating and creating a really safe space for you to be fully you.”
