

Directions: Use Unit 5 in the textbook to complete the graphic organizer for the types of Agriculture common in More Developed Countries. In order to complete the graphic organizers, utilize the information in Modules 33, 34, 38, & 41.

Types of Agriculture in More Developed Countries

	Mixed Crop and Livestock Farming	Dairy Farming
Definition
Where? Regions/Countries
What does it produce?
Characteristics? How are things grown? How is the landscape affected? How are women involved? Etc.
Challenges Farmers Face
Impact on the Environment

Directions: Use Unit 5 in the textbook to complete the graphic organizer for the types of Agriculture common in More Developed Countries. In order to complete the graphic organizers, utilize the information in Modules 33, 34, 38, & 41.

Types of Agriculture in More Developed Countries

	Grain Farming	Livestock Ranching
Definition
Where? Regions/Countries
What does it produce?
Characteristics? How are things grown? How is the landscape affected? How are women involved? Etc.
Challenges Farmers Face
Impact on the Environment

Types of Agriculture in More Developed Countries

	Market Gardening and Fruit Farming	Mediterranean Agriculture *Use document posted on Google Classroom for this section.
Definition
Where? Regions/Countries
What does it produce?
Characteristics? How are things grown? How is the landscape affected? How are women involved? Etc.
Challenges Farmers Face
Impact on the Environment		