

AILA EOIR Immigration Court Tracker

Minnesota - Fort Snelling Immigration Court Minnesota/Dakotas EOIR Liaisons

[Last Updated August 12, 2020]

EOIR's Reported Historical Operational Status	AILA Notes
EOIR announced via Twitter on August 12 at 8:41pm ET that “The Fort Snelling Immigration Court will be closed tomorrow. Please monitor EOIR’s website for information about the agency’s operations nationwide.”
Fort Snelling Immigration Court Status on EOIR’s website for July 23 and July 24 • Closed EOIR tweeted on July 23 at 9:57 am ET: “The Fort Snelling Immigration Court will be closed today. Please monitor EOIR’s website for information about the agency’s operations nationwide.”
	On June 23, 2020, Senator Amy Klobuchar (D-Minn.) joined 11 other Senators in sending a letter to EOIR Director McHenry about EOIR’s decision to resume non-detained hearings, its process for making that decision, and its communication of that decision to stakeholders.
EOIR announced via Twitter on June 8, 2020, at 12:00 pm ET that “Due to building maintenance issues, the Fort Snelling Immigration Court will be closed for the remainder of today.”
EOIR announced via twitter on March 26, 2020, at 8:40 pm (ET) that "As a precautionary measure, the Bloomington and San Francisco-Montgomery Street courts will be closed tomorrow.” EOIR also sent this update via email on March 26, 2020 at 9:47 pm (ET).
EOIR announced via Twitter on March 17, 2020, at 11:55 pm (ET) that “Effective March 18 all non-detained hearings postponed: these immigration courts closed: ATL Peachtree, Charlotte; HOU Gessner; Louisville; Memphis;	Also see EOIR issued a press statement on March 18, 2020, at 12:30 am (ET).

NYC, Broadway & Fed Plaza; Newark; Sacramento; LOS – Olive. Check website for updates.”
---	--