

TERMS OF SERVICE

TOS are subject to change without notice. By purchasing a commission from me (quixdragon), you confirm you have read and agree to the listed terms.

- I retain the right to decline my services for any reason, stated or unstated. If payment has already been made, there will be a full refund.
- Rude and/or offensive behavior (such as hate speech, pedophilia, zoophilia, etc) will result in a complete denial of all services, and you will be blacklisted from my future commissions.
- I retain the right to post the finished commission to my own social media pages, use it in my own portfolios, and use it for my own promotion.
- You may post the finished commission to your own social media pages as well with credit, however, it is always more appreciated if you could repost from me instead. :)
- You cannot attach the commission, nor any edit of it, to a fungible token or blockchain. You cannot use my work to create non-fungible tokens (NFTs).
- Unless explicitly agreed upon otherwise, my art is for personal use only.
- Payment will be made through an invoice. I will not complete the art piece until payment is paid in full. (If you would like to add a tip, you may do so through my Kofi.)
- Refunds will not be offered after the piece is finished in whole. If you need a refund, please request it before the piece is done.
- I will provide updates on the piece's progress unless requested not to.
- Large changes to a piece (such as pose, outfit, or background changes) can only be done in the early stages of work. Smaller changes (such as minor design or color tweaks) may be requested in the late stages of work. Excessive requests for small changes or requests for large changes after the piece is finished will result in a fee.

Thank you for your interest in my commissions!

If anything listed needs clarification, please message me your questions through Twitter or Discord.