

Partner Biography

Michael Miller, Ed.D. • Senior Partner • Executive Leadership Development

Michael Miller

Mike served as a Superintendent of Schools for twenty one years, fourteen of those in Los Alamitos Unified School District and seven in Covina-Valley Unified School District. During his forty years in public education he also served as an Assistant Superintendent of Instruction, principal, assistant principal, Title I Reading and Mathematics Specialist, and teacher.

Mike was recognized as the ACSA Region XV Superintendent of the Year, Administrator of the Year by the California Library Media Association, and the Orange County, Robert F. Alioto Instructional Leadership Award by the California Leadership Academy. Mike also served as the Chairman of the Orange County Superintendents Committee and Co-Chair of the Orange County Business-Education Partnership.

Mike has been heavily involved in teaching and learning and leadership development and served for nine years as the Southern California Regional Director for Pivot Learning Partners. He currently focuses on Executive Leadership Development with Leadership Associates.

Mike received his Bachelor of Arts and Master's Degree from the University of Redlands. In addition, he spent a year studying language development, preschool through adult literacy, at the University of Lancaster, England on a Rotary International Fellowship.

Mike and his wife, Sharon, who is a retired Speech and Language Pathologist, and PhD in Language Development, enjoy researching together on current issues in public education especially around leadership and teaching and learning. They have one grown son and two grandsons.