ABSTRACT

It is suggested that the abstract be crafted in a single paragraph. Additionally, the abstract should not exceed 250 words, and it should include a brief introduction, objectives, methods, key results, and conclusions. Do not include references or equations. This structure is mandatory for quantitative original articles that must adhere to the format.

Keywords: Three to five keywords separated by commas and without a period at the end.

RESUMEN

Abstract in Spanish.

Palabras clave: Keywords in Spanish.

RESUMO

Abstract in Portuguese.

Palavras-chave: Keywords in Portuguese.

1. INTRODUCTION

The introduction should provide an overview of the topic and the objectives set forth, within 1 or 2 pages. This is a guide that provides information on the presentation standards established by the Scientific Committee and aims to assist the author in the preparation of the paper. It is suggested not to use overly long sentences, which may hinder the reader's understanding of the text.

2. METHODOLOGICAL STRATEGIES / MATERIALS AND METHODS

A detailed description of the methodology applied in the research is provided. The use of it is explained through the design, approach, method, depth, type, technique, and chosen instrument. Proper elaboration ensures the replicability of the study. It is written in the past tense (e.g., "was measured," "was counted").

- type of study
- population or sample
- variables and data collection
- statistical processing
- ethical aspects

3. RESULTS

It presents the main achievements attained through the application of the selected methodology. Clear and adequate writing is essential, with a high capacity for synthesis, without neglecting the mention of the most important milestones of the research.

4. DISCUSSION

A reasoned comparison between the previous state of the art and what was achieved after the research is conducted. The importance of the conducted research and its contribution to academic and scientific knowledge in society is justified.

5. CONCLUSIONS / FINAL CONSIDERATIONS

Final arguments or statements that synthesize the work done. The main ideas are taken, and the research is summarized, explaining in the author's own words the reasons for the results obtained.

6. REFERENCES

The references will be listed in a numbered list, according to the order in which they were cited for the first time, using APA 7 style. All cited publications must be included in a list of references placed at the end of the document in a numbered list.
