

GRAMMAR – Object Pronouns, Possessive Adjectives, and Possessive Pronouns Fill in the Blanks

Complete the sentences. Use object pronouns, possessive adjectives, and possessive pronouns.

We use “this” to refer to a singular object or idea that is near or in front of the speaker. “These” is the plural form of “this”.

1. I own this necklace.
 - a. This necklace belongs to _____.
 - b. This is _____ necklace.
 - c. This necklace is _____.

2. He owns these shoes.
 - a. These shoes belong to _____.
 - b. These are _____ shoes.
 - c. These shoes are _____.

3. We bought this dress.
 - a. This dress belongs to _____.
 - b. This is _____ dress.
 - c. This dress is _____.

4. She forgot her accessories.
 - a. The accessories belong to _____.
 - b. These are _____ accessories.
 - c. These accessories are _____.

5. They found their jackets.
 - a. The jackets belong to _____.
 - b. These are _____ jackets.
 - c. These jackets are _____.

6. You bought these sunglasses.
 - a. The sunglasses belong to _____.
 - b. These are _____ sunglasses.
 - c. These sunglasses are _____.

7. He owns this hoodie.
 - a. The hoodie belongs to _____.
 - b. This is _____ hoodie.
 - c. This hoodie is _____.

8. She owns these sandals.
 - a. The sandals belongs to _____.
 - b. These are _____ sandals.
 - c. These sandals are _____.

9. Ana and I own this clothing store.
 - a. The store belongs to _____.
 - b. This is _____ store.
 - c. This store is _____.

10. Cheng and Hui own a car together.
 - a. The car belongs to _____.
 - b. This is _____ car.
 - c. This car is _____.