

CAMPBELL HALL SPRING BREAK CAMPS 2026

(K–Gr. 6) Afternoon Adventure Camp

Looking for a fun and exciting way to keep your campers entertained after their morning Spring Break camp morning camp? Afternoons at Campbell Hall are the perfect blend of adventure and creativity! Every afternoon, campers will dive into a thrilling mix of hands-on activities, active games, and imaginative projects that will keep them engaged, inspired, and moving! From crafting epic masterpieces to conquering epic obstacle courses, your child will have endless opportunities to discover new talents, make lasting memories, and burn off that extra energy.

Campers can look forward to:

- Creative Crafting: Unleash their inner artist with DIY projects, painting, and building fun creations.
- Action-Packed Games: High-energy sports and team challenges to keep them moving and laughing.
- Friendly Competitions: Lighthearted contests and races that inspire teamwork and a little healthy competition.
- Outdoor Adventures: Exploring nature through games and scavenger hunts, making every afternoon feel like a mini expedition.
- Imagination Stations: Unique and interactive play zones that spark creativity and problem-solving in fun, unexpected ways.

With a perfect mix of creativity, activity, and fun, your child will be counting down the days until their next afternoon at Campbell Hall!

What to bring: All campers are required to bring a refillable water bottle and snacks.

Camp Dates:

- Week 1: March 23–27
- Week 2: March 30–April 3

Camp Hours: 1–5 p.m. (Monday–Thursday) | 4:30 p.m. (Friday)

Camp Price:

- $250.00 (week)
- $60.00 (daily drop-in)
- Late Pick Up Fee: $5.00 per minute

Led by: Campbell Hall Secondary Substitute Coordinator, Freedom McCullough