When things happen in books that could happen in real life, they are considered reality. Things that are made up and can't happen in real life are called fantasy.

Make an X to show if the event is reality or fantasy.

Event	Reality	Fantasy
The barn roof bangs like thunder.
The hen's feathers blew.
The pig's curly tails straightened out.
Carrots and turnips blew in the wind.
The corn fell out of the husk.
Sunflower heads flew away.
Frogs surfed in the trough water.
The cow lost most of her spots.
The cats were blown around the yard.

Challenge: Add your own event that might happen at the end of the book. Tell if it's reality or fantasy.
