

Student Annotation in Canvas: Student Directions

Log into Canvas through Clever.
Select your teacher's course.
Click on "Assignments".
Select the Assignment name.

A new window appears with a copy of the file. You will also notice some tools listed across the top of the file.

Students will use the "T" tool to add a text box to the file. The text box can be moved around the file as needed.

Students will write/circle using the paintbrush tool.

Other tools include zoom, strike through, highlighter, and comment.

Once the student has completed the work on the file, click on "Submit Assignment".

The student will get notifications indicating they have submitted correctly.
