General Instructions

Save this document in your personal folder. For each task, read the instructions carefully. Refer to this document for the summative instructions and task-specific clarifications

Topic Research

Instructions: Use the following guiding questions to brainstorm your speech topic. Remember to cite your sources.

- 1. What human rights issue am I going to focus on? Explain the what and the why here.

I choose no discrimination because everyone should be treated equally no matter what their race was, what their religion was, or anything

- 2. Which human right is it about? (refer to UDHR or ECHR)

UDHR, because it happened in multiple countries such as some parts of US, Saudi Arabia

- 3. What kind of advocacy/campaign am I going to do in my speech? What kind of campaign am I going to persuade my audience to join?

I want to campaign against discrimination in religion that happens in many countries and one of them is Saudi Arabia. I want to persuade my audience to accept anyone no matter what their religion is or even if they are standing for atheism. Everyone have their rights to believe what they think they believe as long as the religion teaching good manners

- 4. Is there anything else I want to add to this topic?

I also want a world where people are tolerant with each other although their religions are different. So everyone can live life in peace.

Script Outline

Instructions: Use the following table to outline your speech. Use PEEL structure when building your arguments in the main points. At this stage, you do not need to use the speech language yet. The next table is to help you keep track of stylistic devices you will use in your speech.

INTRODUCTION
Hook/Attention grabber Anecdote, quote, shocking facts, thought-provoking question, etc.	Have you ever experienced racism in religion in your life? Me neither
Introducing the topic	Today I'm going to talk about racism in religion.
Thesis statement The big claim+premise	Discrimination is bad, but most countries still have them.
BODY
Main Point #1 Introduce the issue to raise awareness
Point Claim + Premise	Lots of countries like the US, Myanmar, and Saudi Arabia are still doing discrimination.
Example	Discrimination in Saudi Arabia that doesn't really welcome some religion or simply non-muslim people.
Explanation	Other than that there are no other worship places such as churches and temples. Which means the discrimination in Arab is very high.
Link/Link-back	Despite that, not every muslim in Arab are treated evenly.
Main Point #2 Discuss the issue in detail (causes, implications, case study, future projection, etc.)
Point Claim + Premise	Arab is known for their muslim population, but not all muslim. There are multiple kind of beilives in Islam, such as Sunni Islam, Khawaraj Islam, and many more, but there is one kind that got discriminated in Arab although they are also Muslim

Example	For example types of Islam such as Shia Islam treated unfair trials for various alleged crimes, including protest-related offenses, espionage, and terrorism. Shia Islam are the muslims who belief that the last prophet wasn't Muhammad SAW.
Explanation	Saudi prosecutors in 2019 continued to seek the death penalty against detainees on charges that related to nothing more than peaceful activism and dissent.
Link/Link-back	We can be better than this! We can make the world a better place.
Main Point #3 What can be done about the issue
Point Claim + Premise	Can't we just accept everyone whatever their religion is? Why can't we live together in peace?
Example	Why can't we just be like people in Indonesia where everyone is tolerant of each other and respect each other?
Explanation	In fact people in Blitar, although they have different religions, they built a mosque together and created a bond with each other.
Link/Link-back	Why can't we be like them? Why can't be
CONCLUSION
Restating the thesis	Let's go back again, discrimination in religion is bad.
Summarising the main points	We need to give people the choice for them to believe in any religion they want, and not treat them like the other religion are bad.
Closing remark (call to action, anecdote, last statement, etc)	So please, let's live with diversity. Difference makes everyone unique. Everyone should be treated equally no matter what their religion is.

Note: add more row as necessary

FIGURES OF SPEECH

(Example) Metaphor	(Example) In main point #2, when talking about the willingness to pursue education, I will compare it to fire that burns and gets bigger.
MODES OF PERSUASION
(Example) Logos	(Example) In main point #3, when talking about the persecution of Black people in the United States, I will add some data about how Black people there are more likely to be persecuted to strengthen my point that racism is still prevalent in the States.
Rhetorical Question	In the hook I use rhetorical questions to make an opening for my speech. And also in some link back or in an opening of a point.
Logos	In some facts, like no other prayer places, the discriminated people in Arab and many more were based on the data that I have researched on the internet.

Good morning ladies and gentlemen, thank you for spending your time here for being here today.

Discrimination in religion. What if you are the minority that believes in a religion. Imagine you are in a country where people like you are the minority. Have you ever experience discrimination in religion before? So today, i will talk about discrimination in religion.

Lots of countries like the US, Myanmar, and Saudi Arabia are still doing discrimination. But today we will be focused on Saudi Arabia. In Saudi Arabia, they doesn't really welcome other religion or non-muslim in their country. There are no other worship places than mosques. No cathedrals, no temples, or even churches. Which concluded to, the discrimination about religion in Saudi Arabia is high. Other than that, not every muslim are treated evenly there.

Arab is known for their muslim population, but not for all muslim. There are multiple kind of beilives in Islam, such as Sunni Islam, Khawaraj Islam, and many more, but there is one kind that got discriminated in Arab although they are also Muslim.

For example types of Islam such as Shia Islam. Shia Islam are the muslims who belief that the last prophet wasn't Muhammad SAW. They are treated unfair trials for various alleged crimes, including protest-related offenses, espionage, and terrorism.

Saudi prosecutors in 2019 continued to seek the death penalty against detainees on charges that related to nothing more than peaceful activism and dissent.

Why do they have to be like this? We can be better than this! We can make the world a better place.

Can't we just accept everyone whatever their religion is? Why can't we live together in peace?

Why can't we just be like people in Indonesia where everyone is tolerant of each other and respect each other?

In fact people in Blitar, East Java, although they have different religions, they built a mosque together and created a bond with each other.

Why can't we be like them? Why can't we be tolerant with each other and work together despite the differences of our religions?

Let's go back again, discrimination in religion is bad.

We need to give people the choice for them to believe in any religion they want, and not treat them like the other religion are bad.

So please, let's live with diversity. Difference makes everyone unique. Everyone should be treated equally no matter what their religion is.
