1. Features of the PR at reconstructive restoration operations for non-union of the upper lip and palate, tasks, forms and basic requirements for the method of training gymnastics in front-and postoperative periods.

2. Features of the PR at reconstructive restoration operations for non-union of the upper lip and palate, tasks, forms and basic requirements for the method of training gymnastics in front-and postoperative periods.

3. Sound gymnastics and special exercises that are purposeful action in a functionally defective in children with innate non-union of the upper lip and hard and soft palate.

4. Features of the PR at breaches of the bite and congenital anomalies of the teeth-jaw system in children: basic requirements for physical therapy technique classes and special exercises for self-fulfillment.

5. Features techniques morning hygiene, occupational and preventive exercises for dentists, rational planning of working time, rest, workplace design, recreation and wellness movement modes.

6. Job characteristics and therapeutic exercises for manifestations of occupational diseases among dentists.