review is not allowed in the scientific article format, so it is replaced by the state of the art to prove the novelty of the article (Times New Roman, 12pt, Space 1,5).

Research Methods/Metode Penelitian

Research Methods is implemented to solve problems, including analytical method. The method used to solve the research problems is described in this section (Times New Roman, 12pt, Space 1,5).

Results and Discussion/ Hasil dan Pembahasan

This section consists of results and discussion. Every finding should be supported by sufficient data. Then, research findings should be able to answer the research question or hypothesis stated earlier in the introduction.

When using Illustration, the current is effective and interconnected, not rewriting the whole data, or just asking the writer to read the table. For example:

The most relevant socio-demographic variables of the sample are shown in table 4. In term of gender, men and women are nearly similar in number. Most of the tourist in this area are less than 50 years old and they come primary from rural areas. Surprisingly, approximately 65% the visitors are having primary education (Times New Roman, 12pt, Space 1,5).

Conclusion/ Kesimpulan

Conclusion states the answer of the hypothesis and/or research objective or scientific finding. Conclusion is not the repetition of findings and discussion, but it is the summary of findings as expected in the objective or hypothesis. If necessary, conclusion can also be ended with the next idea to be implemented to the study (Times New Roman, 12pt, Space 1,5).

References/Referensi

The literature listed in the References contains only the sources referenced or included in the article. We recommend preparing the references with a bibliography software package, such as Mendeley, EndNote, Reference Manager or Zotero to avoid typing mistakes and duplicated references. Referral sources should provide 80% of journal articles, proceedings, or research results from the last ten years. Writing techniques bibliography, using the system cites APA (American Psychological Association) Style and the 6th edition (Times New Roman, 12pt).
