

A Trusted Partner in Your Student's Success

Is your student struggling with high school Spanish? As a veteran Forsyth County educator, I've designed my tutoring practice to reinforce classroom instruction and help students regain their confidence.

About Me

My name is Bethanie Boswell. As a teacher with over 10 years of experience in Forsyth County, I have a deep, personal understanding of our school system, its curriculum, and the challenges students face. With specialized experience in tailoring instruction for a wide range of students, I adapt my methods to ensure every student has a path to success. My passion is helping students build the skills and the confidence to thrive.

My Tutoring Philosophy

I believe in a holistic approach that goes beyond memorization. My goal is to support and reinforce learning, providing the personalized, one-on-one attention needed to turn frustration into understanding. Working with me, your student will:

- Develop a deeper understanding of the material.
- Build the essential study and organizational habits needed to succeed independently.
- Increase their confidence and reduce anxiety about schoolwork.
- Improve their academic performance.

Partner with an experienced local educator who is dedicated to helping your student succeed.
