Complete Guidelines For Shifting Into A Model New House 2023

Without a speaker, the chamber can not vote on important legislation, including payments to ship funding to Ukraine as it fends off the Russian invasion and to Israel as its army prepares to invade the Gaza Strip in response to an Oct. 7 attack by Hamas militants. Within an hour of the failed second vote, boxes of pizza and cartons of Diet Coke were wheeled into the Capitol to fuel lawmakers, who are continuing to barter behind closed doors. Conservative media and social media stardom have turned even the most junior and in any other case inconsequential figures — say, Florida Rep. Matt Gaetz, the architect of this speaker-less anarchy — into energy brokers who insist on having their sway. Like-minded conservative voters — small-dollar donors steeped in Fox News — bankroll the chaos brokers; Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene, that Georgia peach of a provocateur, is among Congress' most successful fundraisers. And that's as a outcome of so many within the celebration — elected officers and voters — won't be led. Republicans have the majority in the House, however it's a majority in name solely.
