

1. We're all here to have fun. Let's be positive here, alright? Anon hate will be deleted as I receive it.
2. I'm not a picky shipper, but I want a relationship formed with another character, not to suddenly have one. If you want to ship, there must be chemistry, first.
3. I have no problems with my muse getting beaten or abused. However, if you wish to have muses die in a thread, please discuss it with me ahead of time.
4. NSFW will be tagged, along with any triggers that anyone has. I'm happy to tag anything anyone needs, as I don't have any triggers, myself. Just tell me ahead of time.
5. Please know that I need Rules and some kind of Bio if I'm interacting with an OC. It makes me uncomfortable to not know who I or my muses are interacting with, and if there are any problems, beforehand.
6. So, my xKit does not work at times, so if you have a problem with cutting posts, please tell me. Maybe we can work something out?
7. Mun is 21+, and I'd like that for my mutuals as well. A lot of my muses are horror or action muses, and I do write a lot on here that I'm not quite comfortable writing with minors. So please, 21+ only.
8. For VILLAIN MUSES, understand that I am not my muse. I am not going to say that they are good people when I play them. They are not, one bit. But if my muse does something awful, that is not me agreeing with them. I am none of the characters I write. Please please please understand this.
9. Please, have fun! I'm a very open and enthusiastic mun who is happy to RP with you~ Just know I don't really use fancy text or icons. My Discord is available for those who ask
