App from Web Privacy Policy

We really care about your privacy, Thus why we are here to tell you what we do with your information or data. Sporting app has been developed by Interstellarsoft. It allows developer to build native android app from their website without any hassle.

What personal information does App from Web collect?

First, We believe in privacy. We are not really interested in what you are do or do not do with our application. Your information is fully private and we have no interest on that. However, we do collect information analytics to improve user experience, those are anonymous data and not private.

Permissions

Requested permission	Why this required?
Internet	This permission for load data from web, so we need internet accessing permission.
Access network state	We use ACCESS_NETWORK_STATE permission for check network connectivity.
Storage	To avail download feature storage feature is necessary
Read Phone State	This permission has been invoked to implement native calling from app

Device and app history

We do not access any device data or app history. As we are not storing those data and/or app data will be lost if you uninstall the app and reinstall in a new/same device.