

Song Title: I PUT A SPELL ON YOU

Rating: YES: Caution

REVIEWERS' NOTE

The most famous original performances of this song were done by Screamin' Jay Hawkins in a characterized style that mimicked tribal members from Africa in an unflattering or even demeaning way (video). These performances were not inherent to the song itself, but were added as a performance choice by the performer. The song is admissible, but Sweet Adelines performances must not take stylistic or costume inspiration from the original performances by Screamin' Jay Hawkins.

* * *

This research document has been inadvertently deleted.

The SAT has suffered the loss of around 400 research documents, including this one. We anticipate it may take up to two years to recreate all the missing research documents.

We welcome members to help out by voluntarily submitting the research for this song, but IMPORTANT: If you are submitting an arrangement of this song that is not already in the SED, IT IS REQUIRED that you submit full research.

- If you are submitting an arrangement that is not already in the SED of this SINGLE SONG, please submit full research by selecting “pertains to” option (A) Song is not in SED, and I have an arrangement
- If you are submitting a MEDLEY that has this song as a component, please submit the medley arrangement as you usually would, selecting “pertains to” option (D). But you must also submit full research for this song by selecting “pertains to” option (B) Song is not in SED, and I don’t have an arrangement.

Please see full instructions for submitting through the SAT here: Questions in the SAT Form.

And please note that it is highly unlikely that the rating for this song will change. We apologize for the inconvenience caused by this data loss.