

Silicon Valley Toastmasters

Silicon Valley Toastmasters is one of the unique & oldest toastmasters club in the bay area which has been running since the 1980's. Though our club consists of members who come from different parts of the world holding different dreams, but our club has one common goal to achieve - 'To be a Better and Successful communicator'.

What's in it for you?!

Confident, Charismatic leaders weren't born that way. In Toastmasters you will gain the practice to become the leader and speaker you want to be. Become a better negotiator. Gain Trust. Sharpen your management skills. Inspire your team. Be decisive.

Each club has its own personality and below is how our club operates on a weekly basis.

- ★ Every wednesday @ SanJose Library., Bascom Ave. between 5pm to 6pm PST.
 - Due to the pandemic , meetings are online only.
- ★ Our typical meeting agenda is
 - New word of the week - Each week a new word to be learned and to be used during the meeting.
 - Joke master - Cracks a joke to be a fun filled evening.
 - Two prepared speeches (~5 minutes each)
 - Table Topics to all (~2 minutes each) - Platform to express your thoughts in a given topic.
 - Speech Evaluations Segment - Sharing the constructive feedback to the speakers.
 - Ah counter - The purpose of the Ah-Counter is to note any overused words or filler sounds used as a crutch by anyone who speaks during the meeting. Words may be inappropriate interjections, such as and, well, but, so and you know. Sounds may be ah, um or er.
 - Grammarian - Helps club members to improve their grammar and vocabulary.
 - Meeting conclusion.
