Six Principles for Partnership

Summary

- Love: Giving of yourself to nourish the life of another.
- Partnership: A relationship in which equals are giving of themselves to nourish the life of another.
- Principle 1: Envision True Partnership
  Seeing the partnership you'd love.
  What would someone with my authentic vision for partnership do today?
- Principle 2: Get Out of Love's Way
  Training your brain for love.
  What might I be doing regarding partnership, if I were more acting from my Voice of Wisdom?
- Principle 3: Be the Partner You Seek
  Shifting focus from "What can I get?" to "What can I give?"
  What qualities describe the person I'd want my partner to be with?
- Principle 4: Set the Table for Love
  Arranging your life to nourish the life of your partner.
  What's one small sweet step I can take today, to arrange my life for partnership?
- Principle 5: Let Love Grow
  Being clear about your true intentions for someone, and acting accordingly.
  What is one small way I can let love grow today?
- Principle 6: Be Love's Student:
  The lifelong practice of learning all that love can teach you.
  What can I learn from love right now?

Next Steps

1. Email me at zo@zotobi.com: What's one action you're willing to take as a result of this webinar?
2. Join the online course! Learn more & register: zotobi.com/love

© 2020 Zo Tobi