

Games for Basic 2

Resources:

Herbert Puchta & Mario Rinvulcri (2005): Multiple Intelligences in EFL. CUP

A Game of Parts

The following dialogue is incomplete. Some letters are missing because of the heavy rain for the last three days; and thus, we need your help to guess what the dialogue is about. So, can you fill in the gaps?

Joe: H_, I'm Joe.

Sam: A__ I'm Sam. In my fr__ time __ play computer g__es and I watch DVDs w__ __ my __ends. I also pl__ the gui__ __ and I lik__ sport too.

Joe: I play lo__ of sport in m__ free __me. I __n't play a __sical instru__ __ __ but I like listen__ __ to music.

Narrator: __ort is __n __portant part __f the school curriculum in t__ UK. Students __ __ mally h__e four periods o__ sport __ week. In su__er they do athletics and play te__is. Andy Murray ha__ made tennis a more popular sport again recently in the UK. In the winter, students normally __lay hockey, __ __tball, and rugby. Some students also play basketball, and go swimm__ __.

Joe: I __ __e sport. I play __ts of things ... rugby, cricket, and tennis b__t my favourite sport __s football.

Sam: __y favourite sport is __imming. I __o to the swimming pool ev__y Saturday. I also go sk__ng in the winter.

Narrator: Football is a very p__ular sport in Britain. Lots of p__ple wa__ __ it on TV at home, but many football fans prefer t__ go to on__ of the big stadiums and watch th__r team play l_ve. This is Aston Villa's Stadium in Birmingham. T__y won the European Cup in 1982. Cricket and rugby a_e also popular sports in the UK. Th__e are the Oxford Stars. Ice hockey __n't a popular sport in t_e UK but some people p_ay and watch it.

Answer key

A Game of Parts

The following dialogue is incomplete. Some letters are missing because of the heavy rain for the last three days; and thus, we need your help to guess what the dialogue is about. So, can you fill in the gaps?

Joe: Hi, I'm Joe.

Sam: And I'm Sam. In my free time I play computer games and I watch DVDs with my friends. I also play the guitar and I like sport too.

Joe: I play lots of sport in my free time. I don't play a musical instrument but I like listening to music.

Narrator: Sport is an important part of the school curriculum in the UK. Students normally have four periods of sport a week. In summer they do athletics and play tennis. Andy Murray has made tennis a more popular sport again recently in the UK. In the winter, students normally play hockey, football, and rugby. Some students also play basketball, and go swimming.

Joe: I love sport. I play lots of things ... rugby, cricket, and tennis but my favourite sport is football.

Sam: My favourite sport is swimming. I go to the swimming pool every Saturday. I also go skiing in the winter.

Narrator: Football is a very popular sport in Britain.

Lots of people watch it on TV at home, but many football fans prefer to go to one of the big stadiums and watch their team play live. This is Aston Villa's Stadium in Birmingham. They won the European Cup in 1982. Cricket and rugby are also popular sports in the UK. These are the Oxford Stars. Ice hockey isn't a popular sport in the UK but some people play and watch it.