

Jest Juniper

Look around, look around- Jest and Juniper sit in a field of flowers

At how lucky we are to be alive right now- Juniper smiles at him and he gives her a confused look

Look around, look around- Juniper gestures to her stomach, and Jest stares for a minute before blinking

How long have you known?- Jest narrows his eyes

A month or so...- Juniper nervously smiles and looks away

Eliza! You should have told me!- Jest jumps up and walks closer to her, looking concerned

I wrote to the general a month ago- Juniper looks back to him and nods in the direction of Rain Venom

No!- Jest sits back down and sighs

He begged me to send you home!- Juniper leans forward and rubs her head against his chest

You should have told me!- He curls his tail around her and looks down at his paws

I'm not sorry!- Juniper pulls back and gives him a smile

I knew you'd fight until the war was won- Juniper's smile falls and as she says this, Jest stands up

The war's not done- Jest turns away, glaring at the ground

But you deserve a chance to meet your son!- Juniper jumps in front of him, looking almost pleading

Look around, look around- She puts her paw on his, and he finally looks at her

At how lucky we are to be alive right now- She smiles at him and waves her paw at all the flowers

Will you relish being a poor man's wife?- Jest looks her in the eyes, shaking a little as his voice cracks

Unable to provide for your life?- He closes his eyes, and the image of Penelope's body flashes briefly

I relish being your wife!- Juniper nudges him and nuzzles her head against his shoulder, getting him to open his eyes

Look at where you are- Jest looks Juniper in the eyes, and she smiles as she turns her head to look at their surroundings

Look at where you started- Flashback to baby Jest next to Pression

The fact that you're alive is a miracle- Little montage of Jest getting into dangerous situations

Just stay alive- Juniper grabs one of his paws and holds it

That would be enough- She smiles at him again, and he finally seems to calm down a little

And if this child- They both look down to Juniper's stomach

Shares a fraction of your smile- Juniper nudges her head against his face, and he smiles just a little bit

Or a fragment of your mind- She pulls away and taps her head with one claw

Look out world!- She jumps up and hops around him

That would be enough!- She stops a few meters away, and Jest runs to catch up with her

I don't pretend to know...- Juniper suddenly seems solemn, sadly smiling

The challenges you're facing...- She looks down at her paws

The worlds you keep erasing and creating in your mind- Jest's voices being dicks

But I'm not afraid!- Juniper shakes her head and looks back up

I know who I married- She lays down in the flowers, and Jest settles beside her

So long as you come home at the end of the day- She tucks her head under his chin and closes her eyes, leaning against him

That would be enough- She whispers and smiles, and Jest curls his tail around her

We don't need a legacy- Juniper opens one eye, looking up at Jest

We don't need money- Jest looks off into the distance, narrowing his eyes

If I could grant you peace of mind...- A ghostly Penelope by the treeline, staring at them

If you could let me inside your heart...- Juniper rests her paw on his chest, and Jest looks back down at her, blinking

Oh,, let me be a part of the narrative- Another figure appears, closer to them this time (its Everest)

In the story they will write someday- Yet another ghostly figure appears, though farther away

Let this moment be the first chapter- Juniper leans down and plucks a flower from the ground

Where you decide to stay- She reaches up towards Jest and tucks the flower behind his ear, smiling

And I could be enough- Just,,Juniper smiling

And we could be enough- Camera zooms out to show the two of them laying together in the field

And that would be enough- Just an aerial view of the flower field
