CURRENT CHARACTERS

- ◆ Note that teams will just ~for some reason get a memory~ at some point. It's not ICly known, however OOCly there are no punishments for not participating and everyone will be getting a memory.
- ◆ ICly, this is akin to a dream that everyone has - the events don't actually take place (or do they?) but characters may have a vague recollection of the game -- it was a pleasant (or unpleasant) dream, or something.

VISITING CHARACTERS

- ◆ Your character has just washed ashore into the Forest and are thrown into this game. You can choose which team they are on, or you can just play it however you'd like. This is a test drive for you! This can also be a test drive for Arbiters.
- ◆ You may port these threads over as a "it's strange but I have a feeling I met you before" kind of thing -- like it's a vague dream, but somehow you feel like you've met these characters before, same as the left.
