Starting at $60 for a 6"x6" canvas painting

These can be done pretty quick for a painting, but may take awhile to fix and clean up. I work fast with paintings, but they still take up a lot of time and effort. I don't do these too often, but I've been picking up more recently.

For paintings, I can do anything! It can be ocs or based off a real photo. Please don't be afraid to ask what I am willing to paint, most likely I am able to accomplish whatever you'd like! Please ask me for examples if this is something that interests you!

Rules:

I love to challenge myself, so I am up for almost anything!
I'm not super skilled with mecha, but I am willing to work with you to make it right.

If you are not sure what I can draw, please don't hesitate to ask me!
I am willing to draw NSFW as well, please message me if you are interested in a NSFW piece and I can give you a rundown of what I can/can't draw as well as examples. You must be over 18 to purchase a NSFW commission, no questions asked. There is no upcharge for NSFW commissions, these are just priced like a reg. commission.

I am not offering gore, even mild gore as a commission due to: A. I'm not so skilled with it and B. I do not draw heavy gore. I can do candy gore whatsoever.
I have the right to turn down a commission, this never happens but in the case I get an inquiry over a specific commission, I will let you know that I will not be able to accomplish the commission. I am not here to argue over what I will or will not draw.

Turn out time:

Please keep in mind that I have a full time job so it may take some time to cook up your commission. Turn out times average from less than a month up to three months, it all depends on the current queue I'm working with. I'd say I'm pretty good at keeping up with updates. Please don't feel like you're bothering me if you want an update! All I ask is for some patience, but other than that updates are a guarantee within my commission system!

Payment:

For commissions, I do take PayPal. I will give this to you once payment and commission is discussed.

I am also willing to do Venmo for friends as well!
