

Privacy Policy for iObsthaesia mobile application

Last Updated: 21/08/2023

Thank you for using iObsthaesia. We are committed to providing a quality user experience, and we may collect certain statistical data to improve the performance and functionality of our mobile application (the " iObsthaesia ").

By accessing or using the App, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with our practices, please do not use the App.

1. Information We Collect

We collect limited statistical data to enhance the quality of our App. This data is anonymized and does not identify you personally. The types of information we may collect include, but are not limited to:

- App usage information: We may collect information about how you interact with the App, such as the features you use, the duration of your sessions, and the paths you take within the App.
- Technical information: We may collect information about your device, including its type, operating system, and app version.

2. How We Use Your Information

The statistical data we collect is used for the sole purpose of improving the quality and functionality of the App. We analyze this data to identify areas where enhancements can be made, to fix bugs, and to optimize the user experience.

3. Data Retention

We retain the statistical data for a limited period, only as long as necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was collected. After this period, the data is deleted from our records.

4. Your Choices

As the statistical data we collect is anonymized and does not identify you personally, there are no options for you to opt-out or control the collection of this data.

5. Security

We take reasonable measures to protect the security of the statistical data we collect. However, please be aware that no method of transmission or storage is completely secure.

6. Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. We will notify you of any material changes through the App or other means.
