

ORACLE SWALLOWS

tiny beast, unaligned

treat as 1 hp ea, 0 XP hazards

10' / 30' (fly)

appear in large numbers

if you can figure out how to call them down from their nests, they might tell you a very useful secret (18 in 20 chance, decreasing by 1 for each subsequent attempt) or else spurn you and depart. Things they want: the ruin of innocents and the secret diaries of virgins. They also like fruit pies or pies of raven or cat meat.
