4. Minutes of meeting

- Pierre shows that he has edited the Catalog API so now you can create a product offering without a catalog
- Francisco tells that there is a problem patching product specifications that force to include the version but it works in Pierre instance
- Francisco asks how to combine types of pricing models, Pierre answers that using pricing alterations.
- Discussion on the integration of the rating component with the inventory. It has some problems with error handling and with orders that contains multiple offerings. It has been decided to modify the architecture and integrate the rating component directly with the ordering in order to be able to control order status and to make a single redirection to PayPal payment.
