Career 2201 Unit 2 Assignment 3 Your Ideal Volunteer Position

Use assignment 2 (Skills) to help you complete this assignment. Using your list of skills can help you pick your ideal volunteer position.

Physical activity Dealing with clients Computer/desk work Working "behind the scenes" Making decisions Working by myself Following instructions Other (specify) Working Within Your Beliefs and Values. What type of groups are you most interested in (check your top 3)? Environment Faith/Religious Social Services Health Emergency/Crisis Arts and Culture Sports and Recreation Education/Literacy Community/Economic Development Justice/Crime Prevention (e.g. women, people with disabilities, animals, seniors, youth) 3. For the types of groups you selected as your top 3, can you identify any issues you would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Issues of interest:	1.	What type of work situation do y	ou prefer (please check all that apply)?
Computer/desk work		Physical activity	Dealing with clients
Combination of both Working by myself Following instructions Working by myself Following instructions Working with others Other (specify) 2. Working Within Your Beliefs and Values. What type of groups are you most interested in (check your top 3)? Environment Faith/Religious Social Services Health Emergency/Crisis Arts and Culture Sports and Recreation Education/Literacy Community/Economic Development Justice/Crime Prevention Communities of interest specify: (e.g. women, people with disabilities, animals, seniors, youth) 3. For the types of groups you selected as your top 3, can you identify any issues you would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Issues of interest: 4. Prioritize Your Volunteering Goals Of all the benefits to volunteering, identify which ones are most important to you by prioritizing them from 1-10 (1 being most important): Develop Skills Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle		 	•
Working by myself			•
Working Within Your Beliefs and Values. What type of groups are you most interested in (check your top 3)? EnvironmentFaith/ReligiousSocial ServicesHealthEmergency/CrisisArts and CultureSports and RecreationEducation/LiteracyCommunity/Economic DevelopmentJustice/Crime PreventionCommunities of interestspecify:			_
2. Working Within Your Beliefs and Values. What type of groups are you most interested in (check your top 3)?			_
What type of groups are you most interested in (check your top 3)? Environment Faith/Religious Social Services Health Emergency/Crisis Arts and Culture Sports and Recreation Education/Literacy Community/Economic Development Justice/Crime Prevention Communities of interest specify: (e.g. women, people with disabilities, animals, seniors, youth) 3. For the types of groups you selected as your top 3, can you identify any issues you would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Issues of interest: Develop Skills Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle		Working with others	Other (specify)	-
Faith/Religious Social Services Health Emergency/Crisis Arts and Culture Sports and Recreation Education/Literacy Community/Economic Development Justice/Crime Prevention Communities of interest specify: (e.g. women, people with disabilities, animals, seniors, youth) 3. For the types of groups you selected as your top 3, can you identify any issues you would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Issues of interest: Develop Skills Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle	2.	•
Social Services Health Emergency/Crisis Arts and Culture Sports and Recreation Education/Literacy Community/Economic Development Justice/Crime Prevention Communities of interest specify: (e.g. women, people with disabilities, animals, seniors, youth) 3. For the types of groups you selected as your top 3, can you identify any issues you would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Issues of interest: 4. Prioritize Your Volunteering Goals Of all the benefits to volunteering, identify which ones are most important to you by prioritizing them from 1-10 (1 being most important): Develop Skills Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle		Environment
Health Emergency/Crisis Arts and Culture Sports and Recreation Education/Literacy Community/Economic Development Justice/Crime Prevention Communities of interest specify: (e.g. women, people with disabilities, animals, seniors, youth) 3. For the types of groups you selected as your top 3, can you identify any issues you would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Ssues of interest:		Faith/Religious
Emergency/Crisis Arts and Culture Sports and Recreation Education/Literacy Community/Economic Development Justice/Crime Prevention Communities of interest specify: (e.g. women, people with disabilities, animals, seniors, youth) 3. For the types of groups you selected as your top 3, can you identify any issues you would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Issues of interest: 4. Prioritize Your Volunteering Goals Of all the benefits to volunteering, identify which ones are most important to you by prioritizing them from 1-10 (1 being most important): Develop Skills Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle		Social Services
Arts and CultureSports and RecreationEducation/LiteracyCommunity/Economic DevelopmentJustice/Crime PreventionCommunities of interestspecify:		Health
Arts and CultureSports and RecreationEducation/LiteracyCommunity/Economic DevelopmentJustice/Crime PreventionCommunities of interestspecify:
Sports and Recreation Education/Literacy Community/Economic Development Justice/Crime Prevention Communities of interest specify: (e.g. women, people with disabilities, animals, seniors, youth) 3. For the types of groups you selected as your top 3, can you identify any issues you would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Issues of interest: 4. Prioritize Your Volunteering Goals Of all the benefits to volunteering, identify which ones are most important to you by prioritizing them from 1-10 (1 being most important): Develop Skills Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle Education/Literacy Community/Economic Development Justice/Crime Prevention Communities of interest specify: (e.g. women, people with disabilities, animals, seniors, youth) 3. For the types of groups you selected as your top 3, can you identify any issues you would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Issues of interest: Prioritize Your Volunteering Goals Of all the benefits to volunteering, identify which ones are most important to you by prioritizing them from 1-10 (1 being most important): Develop Skills Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle
Community/Economic Development Justice/Crime PreventionCommunities of interestspecify:		 ·
Justice/Crime PreventionCommunities of interestspecify:			onment
Communities of interest			ортоп
animals, seniors, youth) 3. For the types of groups you selected as your top 3, can you identify any issues you would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Issues of interest:			(o.g. women, people with disc	abilities would like to help solve or prevent? Group Type: Issues of interest: 4. Prioritize Your Volunteering Goals Of all the benefits to volunteering, identify which ones are most important to you by prioritizing them from 1-10 (1 being most important): Develop Skills Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle		specify
are most important to you by prioritizing them from 1-10 (1 being most important): Develop Skills Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle		·
are most important to you by prioritizing them from 1-10 (1 being most important): Develop Skills Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle
Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle	4.
Build a better society Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle		Develop Skills
Gain work experience Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle
Explore career options Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle
Develop a job-finding network Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle
Gain self-confidence Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle
Learn to market myself Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle
Discover my strengths Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle
Build a sense of independence Expand my social circle
Expand my social circle
		·
5. If you would like to be more specific, write a volunteering goal statement below.		Expand my social office
	5.	If you would like to be more specific, write a volunteering goal statement below.

6.	Being Realistic About Your Commitments/Limitations List all the activities you are currently committed to and what days/times during the week they take up (e.g. school, hobbies, teams, family outings, groups, lessons, etc.):
	Activity:	Days/Times:
7.	Aside from your current commitments, list any other situations or issues that could restrict your ability to work in certain positions (e.g. access to transportation, having to pay some out of pocket expenses, touchy situations you would rather avoid, etc.):			