

2026 Summer Day Camps for Grades 1 – 6

Date	Fee until 3:00pm	Fee until 6:00pm	Camp & Instructor	Camp Description
June 8-12	$265	$330	What's the Move? Sam Nelson	GATHER 'ROUND! Collaborate to design your own week of fun. Campers are the ones who decide what happens!
June 15-19	$265	$330	Rose Hill's 13th Annual Olympic Games Sam Nelson	FULL A ROSE HILL TRADITION Get ready to represent the world! In our 13th annual Rose Hill Summer Games, each camper will select a country to compete on its behalf in a week of friendly competition. Alongside exciting games and challenges, we'll dive into the history, geography, and culture of these nations—making this camp both active and educational.
June 22-26	$265	$330	Yarncraft Patty Easteppe	New! YARNCRAFT Step into a world of color, texture, and creativity at Yarncraft! Designed for curious and crafty kids, this camp celebrates the art of working with yarn through hands-on projects and imaginative exploration. Whether campers are brand-new to yarn or already budding fiber artists, they'll discover the joy of turning simple strands into something extraordinary.
June 29-July 3	$265	$330	Learn, Cook, Eat! Sam Nelson	FULL COOKING Pack your apron and your appetite—this week is all about flavor! Each day, campers will roll up their sleeves to cook a new dish from a different part of the world. Along the way, they'll learn basic kitchen skills, explore cultural traditions, and of course, enjoy tasting their creations together.
July 6-10	$265	$330	Paint the Town Sam Nelson	FULL BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND! Hop aboard for a citywide adventure! This camp takes campers on a journey through Boise using the public bus system, teaching them how to navigate routes while discovering the city's hidden gems. Each day brings a new destination, hands-on activities, and plenty of opportunities to explore local culture, parks, and landmarks.
July 13-17	$265	$330	Feathered Friends Patty Easteppe	PAINTING: FEATHERED FRIENDS Take flight into the world of art and nature at Feathered Friends painting camp! Inspired by the timeless beauty of John James Audubon's bird paintings, this camp invites young artists to explore the wonders of avian life through brush, color, and imagination. Campers will learn to observe birds closely, sketch their forms, and bring them to life with vibrant paints.

Date	Fee until 3:00pm	Fee until 6:00pm	Camp & Instructor	Camp Description
July 20-24	$265	$330	Detective Camp Sam Nelson	DETECTIVE ADVENTURE DAY CAMP Calling all super sleuths! Do you have what it takes to crack the case? At Detective Adventure Day Camp, YOU become the detective. Every day is packed with mysteries, clues, and secret codes just waiting to be solved.
July 27-31	$265	$330	Mosaics Galore Patty Easteppe	FULL MOSAIC FUN Discover the joy of piecing together beauty with mosaic magic art! This camp invites young artists to explore the timeless art of mosaics. Campers will learn how to design, arrange, and assemble colorful patterns while expressing their creativity in a hands-on, tactile way.
Aug 3-7	$265	$330	Summer Faves Sam Nelson	POTPOURRI Step back into the lab of fun! This week, we'll revisit some of our most popular experiments and activities from past summers—plus introduce brand-new ones to spark curiosity and excitement.

Phone 208-385-7674 Fax 208-385-0280 office@rosehillmontessori.com rosehillmontessori.com