

Mrs. Hrin's Classroom Rules

1. Pay attention: no sleeping, talking out of turn, side conversations, etc.
2. Avoid name-calling or derogatory comments
3. Keep language appropriate for school
4. Respect everyone's freedom of speech by listening attentively, even when you disagree
5. Verbally disagreeing is great, just do it respectfully
6. Avoid throwing things, including trash. This is not a basketball court. Seriously.
7. Leave the room like you entered it: Pick up after yourself
8. Put backpacks, purses, and large folders on the ground or on the back of your chair, not on the desk
9. No eating or drinking in class (unless it's water)
10. Come Prepared
11. Begin Journal/reading/warm up when the bell rings
12. Turn off your electronics (mp3 players, cell phones, etc.) and do not use them unless directed to by an adult. Then follow rules for using your device appropriately.
13. Always have an answer, even if you have to make an educated guess (hint: "I don't know" is not an answer!)
14. Follow all school rules and all city, state, and federal laws
