International Education Week 2026

SUNY VIRTUAL EVENTS

Monday, November 16

10:00-11:00 AM

Study Abroad Information Session - Online (Join the Virtual Event)

Farmingdale State College

Studying Abroad is an opportunity of a lifetime! You'll discover new places, people, and traditions, while earning credits toward your degree. Learn about FSC's Summer, Winter, and Semester opportunities and start planning your overseas adventure!
For accessibility needs, please contact desenaec@farmingdale.edu.

12:00-1:00 PM

Supporting Neurodivergent Students in Study Abroad - Panel and Discussion (Join the Virtual Event)

Council on International Education's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Subcommittee

Join the SUNY Council on International Education's DEI Subcommittee for an engaging panel and discussion on best practices for supporting students who identify as neurodiverse in study abroad. Learn from fellow students who identify as neurodiverse and have studied abroad on their experiences, learn from professionals in Accessibility Services and Counseling Services on ways to support our students in their experiences and more!
For accessibility needs, please contact michelle.lopez@oneonta.edu.

1:00-2:00 PM

Study Abroad for Business Students (Join the Virtual Event)

Farmingdale State College

Learn about FSC's Summer, Winter, and Semester opportunities for Business Students and start planning your overseas adventure!
For accessibility needs, please contact desenaec@farmingdale.edu.

6:00-7:00 PM
First Time Travelers Webinar (Join the Virtual Event)
SUNY Brockport
Getting ready to travel internationally for the first time? Join us for an introductory webinar designed to help students feel confident, prepared, and excited for their upcoming adventure! We'll cover the basics of international travel, including booking flights, navigating airports, packing essentials, staying safe, and adjusting to a new culture. Whether you're preparing for a study abroad program or planning your first international trip, this session will provide practical tips, helpful resources, and guidance to help you feel ready to take off. Bring your questions and start preparing for a successful travel experience!
For accessibility needs, please contact eplantone@brockport.edu.

Tuesday, November 17

1:00-2:00 PM
Jet-Set Grads: Post-Grad - Live, Study, or Work Abroad Session (Join the Virtual Event)
Fashion Institute of Technology
This engaging session is designed for soon to be graduates eager to expand their horizons and gain international experience. Discover the benefits of traveling and working abroad, from enhancing your resume to developing a global network. Whether you're interested in internships, volunteer work, or exploring new cultures, this session will equip you with the knowledge and confidence to take your next big leap into the world!
For accessibility needs, please contact studyabroad@fitnyc.edu.

2:30-3:30 PM
Beyond Study Abroad - Careers with an International Profile (Join the Virtual Event)
Farmingdale State College
Studying abroad often inspires students to seek careers with an international profile. There are many professions that involve travel and/or deal with people from other countries. Eric De Sena will provide an overview of pathways toward an international career.
For accessibility needs, please contact desenaec@farmingdale.edu.

4:00-4:30 PM

Study Abroad at London School of Economics & Political Science (Join the Virtual Event)

Binghamton University

Study at the internationally renowned London School of Economics (LSE)! Binghamton University offers both a summer and a year-long option for SUNY students to study at this cosmopolitan university in central London. LSE is famous for its economics department, with Nobel Prizes awarded to several former members, as well as the high quality of its social science and related programs. Join this virtual info session to learn more!

For accessibility needs, please contact cfrost@binghamton.edu.

Wednesday, November 18

1:00-2:00 PM

Study Abroad for Engineering & IT Students (Join the Virtual Event)

Farmingdale State College

Studying Abroad is an opportunity of a lifetime! You'll discover new places, people, and traditions, while earning credits toward your degree. Learn about FSC's Summer, Winter, and Semester opportunities for Engineering & IT Students. Start planning your overseas adventure!

For accessibility needs, please contact desenaec@farmingdale.edu.

4:00-4:30 PM

Study Renewable Energy, Technology, and Resource Economics in Iceland for a Summer! (Join the Virtual Event)

Binghamton University

Do you have an interest in sustainability? Would you like to study how Iceland has become a pioneer in the areas of natural energy sources and technology's impact on the environment and experience its incredible landscape? Come along to this info session (4:00pm to 4:30pm on zoom) on how you can study abroad in Iceland for a summer!

For accessibility needs, please contact scurley3@binghamton.edu.

Thursday, November 19

12:00-1:00 PM

Academics and Financial Aid for Study Abroad (Join the Virtual Event)

SUNY Geneseo

Join the Center for Global Engagement and Financial Aid Office to learn about financial aid, aid eligibility while studying abroad, and academics while abroad. Ask questions about applying for summer aid, how to take courses that will keep you on track to graduate while abroad, and how to ensure your credits will transfer among much more. For accessibility needs, please contact jmoore@geneseo.edu.

1:00-2:00 PM

First-Time Traveler Tips & Tricks (Join the Virtual Event)

Fashion Institute of Technology

Join us for this engaging session where we'll share essential tips and tricks to make your journey smooth and enjoyable. From packing smartly and navigating airports to understanding local customs and traveling like a local, we'll cover everything you need to know to feel confident as you explore new destinations. Bring your questions and get ready to discover the joy of travel with insights from experienced globetrotters!
For accessibility needs, please contact studyabroad@fitnyc.edu.

2:00-2:30 PM

Study Abroad in Florence, Italy! (Join the Virtual Event)

Binghamton University

Istituto Lorenzo de' Medici (LdM) is one of the most distinctive and well-established study abroad institutions in Italy. LdM prides itself on offering academic and professionally-oriented courses designed to foster a variety of study abroad programs, as well as enrich students' knowledge, education and skills. Students may choose from 600 different courses in 35 subject areas, which are taught in English. Come learn how you can study abroad in Florence, Italy for the Winter, Summer, Fall, Spring, or the Academic Year!
For accessibility needs, please contact crozanski@binghamton.edu.

3:00-4:00 PM

Antarctica Study Abroad Information Session (Register in Advance to Join the Virtual Event)

SUNY Brockport

Imagine visiting the coldest, windiest, driest, highest, quietest, most remote, and least understood continent on Earth and one that is undoubtedly the most fascinating to the human imagination. During the field study we will spend 10 days aboard an Antarctica cruise ship to explore the Antarctic Peninsula and another 3-4 days exploring the natural and cultural systems of Tierra del Fuego and the tip of South America. January is summer in the southern hemisphere, though temperatures will vary considerably. This is truly a once-in-a-lifetime experience.
For accessibility needs, please contact eplantone@brockport.edu.

Friday, November 20

There are no virtual events scheduled for Friday at this time. Please check again later.