

Fred Weber

Fred Weber a native Sacramentan and product of the Sacramento City School District, resides in Folsom with his wife Debby and their son Nicholas. His is active in the community and serves as an organist/choir director of a local church. He received his B.A. degree from CSU, Sacramento, and has done graduate work at several universities including CSUS and Central Washington State.

Fred has been teaching at Sierra College since 1988, where he conducts the Concert and Jazz Choirs in addition to teaching Music Theory, Appreciation and Voice. His previous teaching experience includes 17 years in the Folsom-Cordova School District, American River College, and CSUS. He has served as a guest conductor and clinician for many festivals throughout California.

Fred began playing professionally while in high school, and is busy performing on most weekends. His main work consists of arranging/conducting/playing shows for local theater groups, in addition to many local jazz groups. Over the years he has worked with such notable performers as Buddy DeFranco, Joe Williams, Henry Cuesta, Myron Floren and Bob Hope. He has been musical director for the Best of Broadway show the past 8 years, and his arrangements have been used for television, Cal Expo, and the Miss Sacramento and Miss California pageants.

Fred also operates his own voice and piano studio, complete with an 8-track recording studio. His students have appeared and performed in many areas of the professional world, including movies, opera, and on Broadway.