

Butte County, Deer numbers down, but not long-term danger July 16, 2014 South
Dakota

Rapid City Journal

... most recently that drop may be due to the early and ongoing winter storms this past year - or maybe predation from a large coyote population... "With the mule deer, we backed off on those licenses a couple years ago to rebuild those populations," ...