[SUBJECT BACKGROUND INFO]

Kronen joined the Air Cadets when he was 14 then later became a Sergeant and gained a passion for military work and for the shooting. He continued his career by joining the RAF as a Regimental gunner Sergeant and passing all his tests with top marks. He then went on to serve in Afghanistan defending a key air field against enemy forces that launched attacks day after attacks of insurgents and explosives. while also going on foot patrol around the local area and often had to try and talk with locals and gather info in order to defend the airfield. He eventually got key info on nearby forces before immediately reporting the threat to the command. Then took part in the operation to capture an insurgent explosive workshop. Where he used a drone to scout out the nearby area around the workshop and then used it to get an idea of the layout and then doing a quick sketch to show the others key points and insurgents were. He then took point in the breach giving clear call outs and taking 2 prisoners during the breach due to the scouting done beforehand. This led to his promotion to flight lieutenant due to excellent performance and leading the assault and for his skill to get information. He continued to work in the RAF regiment taking on more tasks put first when it came to Scouting. Then his career took a turn after being in contact with an unknown anomaly.
