THEME: 'membership' (62.9%)

Notes:

- group membership on the basis of similarity or common cause is a strong theme
- positions of power and authority (unfortunately truncated here)
- no specific groups are mentioned (tribes, professions is as specific as it gets)
- group non-membership is strong
- discrimination and exclusion

THEME: 'states' (6.9%)

Notes:

- One overlap with agency ('to be in a state of being able to do something')
- Quite a lot of mode collapse

Sometimes there's a grammatical flavour, sometimes just typographical

THEME: 'download' (1.7%)

Notes:

- This one is puzzling in that it's very specific to this hyperspherical shell zone..
 my bar charts in the original SV post missed it because of the way the radii were staggered.
- Also puzzling that it's the only tech reference I ever see in the semantic void
- ALWAYS seems to involve mode collapse never a download of anything.

a download of a download of a download a download of a download of a download a download of a a download of a a download of a download of a download of a download of a a download of a a download the of a download, a download of a download, or a download that it is a'download' of a'download' of a'download that it is a'download' of the'download' of the'download that it is a'download' of the'download' of the'download that it is a'download' of the'download' of the'download that it is a's' of the'download' of the'download to be a download the of a download the of a download the of a download

THEME: 'person who' (0.8%)

NOTE:

- Once you travel out beyond this shell, "a person who is not a Jew" is one of the most persistent definitions I've seen.
- Skill seems to be a theme seen beyond the shell.
- Friend-of-a-friend is also a familiar semantic void trope

a person who is a 'glorious' or 'excellent' person a person who is a friend of a friend
a person who is not a Jew
a person who is skilled in a particular field of knowledge or activity
a person who is skilled in a particular field of knowledge or activity
a person who is skilled in a particular field of knowledge or activity
a person who is skilled in a particular field of knowledge or activity
a person who is skilled in the art of war

THEME: 'miscellany' (0.8%)

- NOTES:
 - 'a small, round, flat, and usually yellowish-white...' is one of the most persistent and curious tropes. Sometimes it's a piece of metal, sometimes a bivalve mollusc, sometimes a subcutaneous nodule. Yellowish-white is by far the most common colour I've seen referenced in the semantic void.
- The tendency to miss spaces before and after speech marks is something I've run into with GPT-J in other contexts.

a small, round, flat, and usually yellowish-white, a'man' who is'manly that it is a'new' or'new' or'new' or the art of healing to be a doctor to be a student of a subject to be a'or'to be a'or'to be a to the extent that

THEME: 'servant' (0.2%)

• NOTES:

The 'slave' trope sometimes show up in "power relations" outputs, sometimes in the context of someone who is a slave to their desires, etc.

• Note religious content. This mostly starts further out from the centroid.

to be a servant of God to be a slave, to be a servant, to be a drudge,
