

Rewrite the sentences using a modal verb or a modal perfect and the words in brackets.

1. If I had worn my raincoat, I wouldn't have become so wet. (in order)
I _____ become so wet.
2. It is not allowed to carry scissors in your cabin suitcase.
You _____
3. Nobody believes that Austen wrote that book as she died years before being published.
That book _____ before being published.
4. John doesn't usually cook. It is likely he has asked his mum to make his birthday cake.
John's mum _____
5. The deadline for the science project is next Friday. (finish)
The Science project _____
6. It was needed to forget our differences to rebuild the town after the earthquake.
We _____
7. It won't be necessary to think of a Christmas menu. My brother has invited us. (need)
We _____
8. Tom knits his own wool jerseys. He has surely attended a sewing course. (as)
Tom _____ his own wool jerseys.
9. It should be advisable for him to get up earlier not to run to school every day. (so as)
He _____ every day.
10. The Smiths can sleep better on rainy days because a builder repaired their roof.*
The Smiths _____ and they sleep better on rainy days.
11. Why don't you oil the hinge to avoid that disgusting noise?
The hinge _____ it makes.
12. It is highly recommended to tidy your room before the sleepover party.
You _____
13. The comet will likely be watched from 4:00 to 6:00 a.m.
We _____
14. Stop playing the electric guitar. It is midnight and you can disturb our neighbours' sleep.
You _____ because you can disturb our neighbours' sleep.
15. Show me your Identity Card, please. People under 18 are not allowed.
_____, please? _____ enter.
16. Why are you carrying that heavy rucksack? Your bones are not strong enough. (ought)
You _____
17. I'm sure the cake won't be for John. He hates desserts. (ordered)
John _____ He hates desserts.
18. I think it is necessary to buy a hair-dryer.
We _____
19. Who needs to follow a diet in the summer?
Is _____ in the summer?
20. Oh! It doesn't fit me. It's too long.*
Oh! It doesn't fit me. It _____