THE SWEET BELL DAY ARCHIVE:

all times are in EST

The first Sweet Bell Day:
Monday, November 30, 2015
11:58 PM - 12:03 AM

boby: hello all, and goodbye

this has been the first annual sweet bell day and i couldn't have been happier to have you all here we will be hosting more later, but all good must come to an end im going to pass the mic over to my buddy jack jack: everyone, thank you

we had a record attendance for this year's sweet bell day event and i'm so excited you were all able to make it out what's in store for us in future events? only god knows boby: we will now begin the ceremony or the "purge" if you will

jack: 10

travis. i know you didn't say much this time around, but i doubt this is the last we'll be seeing of you. take care

jack: 9

mogul. you didn't say anything in the chat, maybe next time you can break out a bit and get to know some people a little better. don't be shy, we're all friends here :)

boby: 8

henry, you had so much opportunity to be great, and that was lost by your absence.
maybe another day, fellow friend...

jack: 7

fic. bye.

boby: 6

raging rarity, you participated a few times but did not embrace the culture. may you be raging in the afterlife...

jack: 5

jay. it's been chill catching up. you didn't say much in the chat, but we'll definitely finish our collab sometime.

boby: 4

weather melody, you played your melodies gracefully in the chat but did not understand what was going on. may your melodies stay with the weather...

boby: 3

nando, you were great, but not as great as the next few. you survived through all of the shit and did not back down when challenged. see you next time...

boby: 2

kevin, drunk or not, you served a great presence in the sbers. from offending sophia to making jokes of deez nuts, you did not dissappoint. thank you for your time...

jack: 1

alek. you're the last one left to be sent on their way, and it's because you did well this chat. you caught on quicker than anyone else to it's purpose, and i'll commend you for that. have a nice life.

The second Sweet Bell Day:
Monday, February 29, 2016
11:49 PM - 11:58 PM

jack: hello sweetbellers
this is the end of a holiday
a sad time
all festivities must eventually come to a close

boby: very sad indeed

jack: worry not however you will all be invited to the next sweetbell day event boby: well - hopefully all there are always a few exceptions jack: and if we work together we can make each more glorious than the last rob: Maybe

boby: we here strive to make next event better than the last and I hope we can fulfill that fantasy jack: i want to thank all of you for participating some more than others but you all ultimately made this into a great experience for all we will now start the awards you have all been ranked on your contribution congratulations to the champions, but remember you are all winners

boby: 13
jude, you did not participate. that is all.

Emily: o

jack: 12
bolo, you were in one call and did not embrace the culture. you will not be considered for future sweet bell days

boby: 11
dictate, although you did not speak, your spirit was here making sweet bells ring all through the night. we hope you can join in the future.

mits: loooooo

boby: excuse me
do not interrupt the ceremonies

jack: 10
henry, you listened in to one of the calls and laughed at the appropriate times, but you did not participate. we hope you can join later and not play civ.

boby: 9

anjelika, your tumblr entertained us very much. thank you for hours on end of good gay content.

jack: 8

jay, you wished boby a happy sweet bell day on soundcloud, this ranks you higher than the lesser beings below you. good work.

boby: 7

elliott, you magnificent swimmer. come swim with us in another day?

jack: 6

vylet, you are one of the best sweetbeller of us all, but im not sure if you are aware of it. because of that, you are not ranked higher. it was a pleasure.

rob: BYE FUCKFACE

boby: 5

ace, one of the best of us all. whether you were in call or not, you were always on the case, coming up with and dissecting sweet bells like no other. hopefully you will join us in the future. you've learned well, my friend.

jack: 4

alek, the champion returns. being brought from 1st to 4th might seem like he's lost his touch, but this is far from the case. he was up against a lot of strong candidates this round and i hope to see him near the top of the leaderboard in future ones. the bell was an excellent touch, and i think with a few similar stunts you could have had a shot at the champion.

Alek: (bell)

boby: 3

emily, lexi, whatever the fuck you want to be called, you were a great sweetbeller. whether you knew it or not, you were one of the best here. im not sure you entirely knew what a sweet bell was - and that is why you were ranked so high. because you WEREN'T self aware, you were one of the best. be ready for the next one.

jack: 2

caleb, you embraced what it truly means to be a sweet beller perhaps more accurately than ever before. you were a strong candidate from the moment you began talking, and i hope to see you joining in the competition and festivities in future sweet bell days.

mits, you were obviously the best of us all. from the absolute start to the dead end, you were the most self aware and possibly the best sweetbeller of us all. also you were the most involved on the server and in general probably the most involved

mits: let my last words be known: traps aren't gay

The third Sweet Bell Day:
Saturday, April 30, 2016
11:59 PM - 12:16 AM

boby: EVERYONE IN THE CHAT

sopa:

boby: this has been such a wonderful day

jack: hello all, and thank you sophia:

boby: thanks everyone for being here for this entire day it has been one of the best sbd's yet jack: this year has been our biggest turnout ever boby: pretty much, jack and we've had a tough time deciding jack: we had new friends embracing sbd, along with returning veterans this time the competition was brutal boby: now, it is time

jack: we had a real tough time deciding between some of the positions, but overall we believe we made all the right choices boby: don't be too discouraged if you're lower than you thought, as there was a lot of fierce competition this time around to all the inactive people: listen here you fuckers. sweet bell day is a time when we all get together as a FAMILY and celebrate, and you help nobody by wasting space and bandwidth. we hope you can participate next time

[inactive people are kicked] jack: to everyone who is about to be kicked: you will have around 10-15 seconds to give a closing statement of your own before you are purged. please do not speak when someone else is being purged.

boby: 23. buddy. you left the call twice at the beginning, what the fuck man

jack: 22.

henry. you had one message. at least you said something.

boby: 21.

silva. you joined the call and that was pretty cool, we guess. you could have been higher if you played minecraft with us but w/e

jack: 20.

soul. you were confused. next boy please

boby: 19.

mits. you glorious bastard. work held you back this time. we hope to see you again. your spirit was with us every time the bell rang.

also, traps aren't gay

trace. nice dick pics, gay boy. try again next time.

boby: 17.

flag carrier. there was a bit of nice conversation going on in the chat, but you couldn't join the call, and it was a bit away in subject matter from the sweet bells this day is about

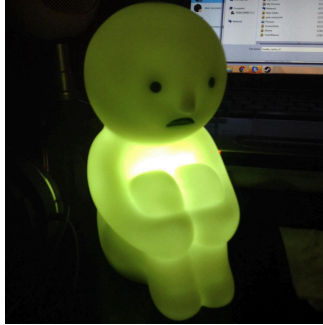

jack: 16.

hannah. you might not have said as much as others similar in rank to you, but we appreciate that you joined the call and watched the video. with so few words you brought us a bit of entertainment, so we thank you for that.

boby: 15.

anjelika. we appreciate the fact that you joined the call, even if you didn't say a whole lot. as a returning sweet beller, you know that you're always welcome here.

anjelika:

jack: 14.

alek. you should have been more active. it's so sad to the one of the kings drop to being one of the peasants. because you weren't there to ring the bell, bobby had to ring the bell. he took over one of your primary traits as one of our previous top bellers. good luck next time.

alek: So glad that I got to spend sometime with my fellow sweetbellers! Can't wait till next time! (Sorry I didn't join as fast) (bell)

boby: 13.

bob. since you were added, you were sweetbelling from the start. you have been constantly keeping the chat entertained throughout most of the time. come back, you can do better.

jack: 12.

ace. there's something different about you that always brightens up the call. we only wish you could have been more active this time around

boby: 11.

emily. you should have participated more, but when you were here, it was like old times. please, for sbd 4, participate more. caleb missed you.

jack: 10.

bin. you were spitting sweet bells like fire when the chat began, and showed real potential. unfortunately your activity died down as the day went on, but it's tough to find people who embrace sbd as quickly as you did.

boby: 9.

vy. you are a natural. but...maybe too much of a natural. you were going a bit over the top with the spamming which is too sweet for this day. you were, however, one of the most active sweet bellers, constantly throwing them out and keeping them alive. thanks for participating.

commander purple. your sweet bells were top notch, some of the most raw material we've seen from a participant, and you caught on pretty quickly. we wish you had been able to join the call, but this is a fairly high rank for no call time regardless. we hope to see you at the next sbd.

elliott. we admire your commitment to sbd, even if you didn't know any of the people here beforehand. you dropped some excellent sweet bells whether you knew it or not, and we greatly appreciate your commitment to bettering the holiday.

milan. you were a bit of a wild card at first, but even knowing nobody else you embraced the nature of the day. you were an excellent addition to the call, and the fact that you put on video call tells us a lot about your devotion. we see great potential in you for future sweet bell days.

milan: Happy Sweet Bell day all! It was great. Don't be busters. And Memes. Kappa.
(bell)

boby: 5.

jay. you weren't there all of the time, but each minute you were kept creeping you higher and higher up the leaderboard. you have strong sbd spirit, and we think everyone could learn a little bit more about it from you. see you next time, it'll be spectacular as always.

jay: This has been one of the greatest time of my life, aside from last year's sweet bell day...

I want to thank all of my friends and new friends for helping celebrate this sweet bell day...

So with that, there is much love for all of you in the sweet bell day chat, especially Jack and Bobby... (Jack is still my favorite)

Praise Madeon.... Amen. (bell)

jack: 4.

ralph. your disapproval of sweet bell day was exactly the kind of zest that more of us here need. even if you took an unconventional approach to reach this high in the leaderboards, it payed off. you might have scored even higher if you had showed up past the pre-party. hope u had a good day at mcdonalds bud boby: for the last three, please pm either boby or jack your email for your amazon gift card. congrats on making it this far!

jack: i just want to congratulate you all boby: all of you

everyone

jack: you should be proud of yourselves this is it

boby: every single one

jack: the final 3

boby: 3.

declan. the fucking legend. first an observer, then a master. even if you didnt fully understand what was going on, you beat out almost everyone else in performance. the public stunts were an added bonus to your almost constant presence in calls. i am glad to say you were the best declan in this group. come back, maybe you can win a future sbd

boby: 2.

sopa. you've really come a long way since you first entered skype calls. it's amazing to see how much you've grown and how much of our strange conversations you've picked up on naturally without ever having anything explained. you had a fluent and natural meta game today and i'm excited to see your further development in future sweet bell days

sophia: good game

boby: 1.

caleb. greatest motherfucker, dude. last time you came so close, yet so far. you are the natural born sweet beller. today, you had such a great performance and made us ring the bell the most out of anyone else. it was fantastic to have you here for sbd iii, come back again and see if you can hold your title. we salute you caleb: join the scouting leigon and bitches can handle my shit they get realy excided when they see my dick and #calebland2016-forever

The fourth Sweet Bell Day:
Saturday, June 25, 2016
11:49 PM - 12:07 AM

jack: this was a great sweet bell day boby: overall it might have been one of the best jack: we had an amazing time, and likely the best pre-party so far boby: absolutely

jack: we had a total of 55 participants boby: this was for sure out most involved preparty and one of the best overall sweet bell days we have had in a long time jack: before we beign with the purge let's discuss something boby: ill let jack take it away jack: i want to digress a little bit and talk about the token leaderboards. let's look at some rankings and stats. the person who recieved the most tokens was sophia, with a whopping 21 token total.

jack: she also happened to have by far the most green tokens at 14, with the second best being jay coming in at 9 greens.

jack: the most yellow tokens was a tie between sophia, jay, and kyunn.

jack: 6 people earned a red token, namely sophia, milan, kyunn, jay, emily, and caleb. of these 3 tied for the most reds at 2, being emily, jay, and sophia.
alright, everyone, we'll now begin with the purge boby: each person will have a small amount of time to say something before they have to leave

if you want to say something, start typing and we will let you finish but before we get to that, we need to get rid of the dormants cadie: whats happening

I don't understand ?

jack: ALRIGHT
now for the leaderboards boby: the good part

kley: the actual finale

boby: 26
giuliano. what the actual fuck, man? you asked constantly what sweet bell day was and you avoided every second of it. what a god damn shame, man. guess we'll never know until the next one...

jack: 25
bin. you didn't talk very much at all, but did wish you were given work time off for sbd. we respect that.

boby: 24

andrew: nathan, while you were present in chat at the beginning of the pre-party, you didn't contribute and didn't seem to understand what was going on. in stark contrast to milan, who had a phenomenal rookie year, your performance left much to be desired. hopefully you can do better next time, second best roommate.

jack: 23

declan. you were in the call for a bit, and we appreciated that. hope you can make it to the next one with more time to celebrate, we know you're capable of so much.

boby: 22

mewnight rose. while we heard legends of you being a "memelord", you did not live up to your titles by not saying much in the chat at all and not being in call. come back again?

kley: goodbye, friend

jack: 21

anjelika. you were in the call for 20 minutes or so.

anjelika: Didn't have much of a chance to actually talk this time actually round :-(

jack: <3

anjelika: Can't speak rn either lol

boby: 20

bambi. you had an interesting mits complex by not saying anything in call and typing in the chat. while what you said was not particularly as entertaining as others, you still sweet belled as hard as the next person, we hope to see you shine in future days (preferably with a mic).

jack: 19

crimson queen. you swore a lot and were pretty entertaining but did not stay very long.

ralph: wait is it over already boby: ralph don't fuck this up dude

ralph: what the fuck

boby: dont type of we'll remove your rank ralph: o

boby: 18

ace. we hate to say it, but you weren't on the case as much as you were in past sweet bell days. we hope in your current situation you can come back in action and regain your prime.

jack: 17

kid. you were there for a bit, said some funny stuff. it was nice having you here.

boby: 16

ralph. you don't know how glad we were to see the switch from such a stubborn mindset from sbd3 into the celebratory childlike person you were today. it was a damn shame that you only showed up for a smidgen of the pre-party. if you had participated more, you for sure would have ranked much higher.

any last words?

NOPE

jack: 15

noman. we admire your courage, persistence, and willingness to step outside the boundaries most people would have to accomplish your goals.

boby: 14

alek. you were there

alek: Yeah..., I'm going to sleep

jack: 13

joe. we're glad you could make it out to your first sweet bell day, and that you stayed in the pre-party call long enough to have some sort of presence. unfortunately, you remained absent for the remainder of the event.

boby: 12

juli. caleb made a good decision by adding you today and you made an even better one by staying in and participating throughout the day. while you may have not fully known what was going on, you surely did enjoy what was happening, and that is an attitude that we wish more people would have. we are glad to say that you most certainly be inviting you to future days.

jack: 11

dat gma. we loved the website, and the fact that you turned on your video. we wish you could have been here longer.

boby: 10

cadie. our biggest fan. thanks for showing your appreciation for our videos. it was such an oddly surreal experience to see someone only familiar with our videos to actually meet us and especially rob. we hope to see you again. thank you for participating.

jack: 9

milan. our man is back. you have a special presence in calls and just the fact that you're there brings you up higher in rankings than many others. we sometimes wish you'd talk a little more, but are very impressed already at how well you do each time considering you hardly know anyone else. see you next time.

boby: 8

caleb. it's a shame we have to rank you this low. maybe it was the lack of excessive sweet bells. maybe it was the rise and fall of "that guy". maybe it was your lack of minecraft involvement. who knows? the only thing that we know is that you were still great, and we want you back. see you in the next day.

jack: 7

flag carrier. i think this is the first time you've participated extensively in any sweet bell day, and we've truly enjoyed it. the sweet bell songs you made were top notch and your enthusiasm in call kept the day running smoothly. we're sorry you're not in a more convenient timezone for the rated portion of the event, but we believe that with enough participation you could rank very highly in future events.

boby: 6

emily. a veteran sweetbeller returns. your involvement really spiced up the pre-party and made everyone's sweet bell day much better. if it weren't for you, we wouldn't have had lots of great memories, including the legend of noman. thanks for showing up and making a much greater appearance than previous days. welcome to the staple club.

jack: 5

vylet. you are really getting into the groove os sweet bell day now. the album you made was great, and you were one of the few who actually played minecraft on the server. your dedication to and enthusiasm for sweet bell day is something we all admire.

vy: Happy day my fam

boby: 4

ed, holy shit. you were another one of the pre-party gods even if you showed up later in the day. the combination of your self-awareness matched with an accent that all ladies would die for made your spot a solid 4 on the list. 1 spot away from a prize should not keep you away from future sweet bell days. we really enjoyed your presence and would hope to see you in future days for more thought provoking questions and entertainment jack: we are down to the top 3

all of you who made it this far, congratulations you have already risen above many

kley: well done

boby: not just anyone gets to see this message (unless u read the archives lol)

jack: 3

sophia: Am I in the top 3?

jack: kyunn. the highest placing newcomer to the game, we were impressed by how quickly you caught on and became a part of the event. you had a presence in the preparty and the daytime event, and actually played minecraft on the server. the drawing you made was amazing, and we definitely hope to see you around in future sweet bell day events. also, we are straight men but you have a very attractive face. peace!

jay, you magnificent bastard. you were the one who made the pre-party as special as it was. we don't know how you were able to nearly perfect our style of comedy, but you did it better than some permanent members have ever been able to do. you know you had a very successful sweet bell day when there was serious debate whether over you should be first or second. we hope to see you in future sweet bell days and in more calls in the future.

jay: IT HAS BEEN A HAPPY DAY!!! THANK YOU FOR THE SWEET BELL DAY FESTIVITIES AND FOR THE TOKENS! LOVE YOU ALL! ESPECIALLY JACK AND BOBBY! (More importantly Jack ;))

HOPE TO SEE YOU ALL NEXT TIME!~~~

jack: lov u

sophia. you blew us away this time. the level to which you understand sweet bell day and are able to act in accordance with its guidelines is striking in both its speed and accuracy. you had a definite presence throughout the majority of the holiday and truly deserve this position. keep the bells ringing girl.

kyunn. whenever you join we all have a good time with good buds. you should join more, and maybe be a little more cool sometimes (if possible). see u around

jack: 16.
milan. off to a strong and silent start this time around but unfortunately your lack of participation hindered it from getting this far

boby: 15.
jade keepsecret. although you broke the first rule of sweet bell day several times, you were great in quiplash and overall did not rly give a fuck - which is good sometimes. come back with a mic next time and maybe your true self can shine

jack: 14.
anjelika. u put cam on when we said to, you answered when we called you, but you could have done so much more. it's unfortunate that you weren't able to participate more. what a FUCKIN shame dude get the fuck outa here anj: happy 1 year sweet bell i still rememner wehn my tumblrt was exposed

boby: 13.

geekbrony. you participated to the best of your ability but unfortunately came a bit short. the reverb jokes were there, the minecraft was there, but you could have performed much better. it's sad to see you be placed this low, please come back and try again in future sbds

DJ GeekBrony [Owner / Musician]: this was the best sweet bell day I have ever been in so far, because it was the first lmao, I loved it, it was great. thank c: pretty sure the next one will be great dudes. even more thank for y'all

jack: 12.

nightmare eclipse. you were there for a while, occasionally dropping some spicy moments but a lot of the time you were just muted and making bangers. it was cool and all but we'd like to see more interaction in the future

jack: 8.

ryko. sick time havin u around bud. some chill ass moments. a little bit gay but we'll let it slide this time

boby: 7.

ace is on the case. it's so nice to have you back. your presence in sbd6 might have even been better than your previous participations. you fuckin slayed the joke list and were just an overall great presence in call. i hope you can eventually get enough money for a computer so you can come to all previous sweet bell days. good luck ace is on the case: Alright guys. This has been my first real fully-participating sweetbell day. It's been amazing! I love this so much and I hope I'll be around for more in the future. It was hard having to stay up all this time after a hard day of work, but it was worth every second. Happy Sweetbell day and happy holidays to all <3

jack: 6.

giuliano. from sweet belling on the train to literally coming to my house with a real sweet bell, you did the best you possibly could in your current situation. i love you.. dont tell ur girlfriendn.. :)

boby: 5.

mg. as you are normally that lil' bitch who leaves every time sweet bell day happens, it was a pleasant surprise to see you stick around until the end. your time in quiplash was unexpectedly 🔥 and we really hope that you'll give future sweet bell days and stick around more often instead of reverting back to weenie of the century status

jack: 4.

lexi. for being another person who left every sweet bell day every time we added you, you finally let yourself shine. you were the king/queen of minecraft without a fuckin question. you didn't just do minecraft, though. you were in call for a hella long time and even went an hour without noticing your mic was muted. you're a fuckin dumbass. bitch fuck you get outa sweet bell day. just kiddin :) (ill leave the server up just for u)

lexi: YALL ITS BEEN REAL GREAT GETTING TO KNOW YOU!!! YOU GUYS ARE ALL RLY COOL AND I RLY ENJOYINF HANGING OUT WITH U GUYS!! it was my first sweet bell day and im! so happy to get to talk with you guys. ill try my best to make sure im here the next time!! thank u guys holy fuck love u a lotto thank yall <3 ;q; jack I miss u a lot and I hope ur doing good and boby thanks for being a great pal I like you a lot my dude thanks for adding me in and making the day great. sbd forever yall expect fanart

boby: 3.

alek. you are a prime example of how somebody with limited participation can still contribute so much. your participation this time was short, but oh-so-sweet. hope you can make us some more sick vids in the future and be in call more next time alek: Top 5? What can I say, im just a pretty cool guy

jack: 2.

ed. your questions are top notch as always and you bring a certain charm to the table that few others in sweet bell day can rival. you make funy jokes - said all the cool questions ahha love you ed... <3

boby: 1.

caleb. the watcher - enter the null - whatever you want to be called doesn't matter at the end of the day because we have a new name for you, "the sweet bell day two time winner". you are the only person who has ever been able to win sweet bell day two times total. from all the jokes, laughs, and funny moments you gave us this time, you were definitely the best sweet beller this time around. although it was hard you've been with us since SBD2 and we hope to see you in every next one we host. we're proud of ya, bud caleb: Well it has been a good run this time I really am happy I got to participate this time. So thank you for dealing with me and my cancerous jokes and memes and banter. I hope to you in sweet bell day 7 and for those who are new I wish you the best of luck on your campaign. And remember Luna pro nobis boby: 29. Impulse.

you may have spammed the bell a shitload, but it was only because it lived strong inside of you. we appreciate the time you put into the minecraft server.

boby: 28. waffles.

the last minute legend. although you were not in much of the start of sbd, once you arrived you did nothing but bring some of the best content. the drawing, the facebook recipe, the money. all of it adds up to bring you to this spot. you would have been much higher if you would have participated more. please do so next time.

TheAetherGod: Happy Day! Thanks to everyone for making my first sweet bell day experience amazing!

boby: 11. ocean breeze.
your dad will never look at you the same. we really enjoyed having you.

boby: 9. nathan.

your song blew everyone here at sbd hq away. as a first timer, you definitely went overboard. next time with your experience, you have the ability to rank much higher.

nathan: this was my first sweet bell day, and it made me feel alive again. it was a hoot a good a laugh and a great time i love u all.

boby: 8. vylet.

thanks so much for the work you did to get sbd out there to so many "unique" people. the music submission was superb, but you could have participated in more events rather than just be in call. we will see you again.

boby: 7. declan.

the cool declan. the livestream drawing with the crayons you bought was just one of the few examples of the overachieving you did during this sbd. the constant call presence and nonstop spirit ranks you above many others. thanks for sticking with us, come back again.

tech: I just want to say thank you sexy sweet bellers, it's been a gr8 day and I'm so proud to be a sweet bell. follow me on instagram @de_eclan1 and snapchat @de_eclan boby: 6. geekbrony.

where do i even begin? the mixer vocal effects, the devotion to minecraft, the nonstop OC content in the chat. you have consistently been one of the best members, but you were barely beat by the next few. i have a feeling we will see you again.

boby: 5. alek.

you started out slow, but boy did you really get going. you submitted so many things to the contest that it was difficult to keep track of. your spirit in the later sections of sweet bell day more than made up for your silence in the beginning. some of your contest submissions were pure gold and we're so glad to have had you here.

RoyalFlame: I have a feeling this Sweet Bell Day was a test with discord, but i think it worked well. I found myself enjoying Sweet Bell Day as usual. Can't wait till the next Sweet Bell Day :strawberry: :ghost: (ps: i dare you to jump as high as i can) boby: 4. massvelocity.

boby: 3. ace.

of all people, you had the most spirit. you tried incredibly hard at the contest and had some incredibly memorable submissions. as a veteran from past sweet bell days, you did not dissapoint. your call presence was deepy appreciated, and both your spirit and personality made a significant impact towards this experimental sweet bell day being a massive success

Ace is On the Case!: Sweet Bell will always be my favorite day. Thank you all so much for making this sbd6.5 amazing! You newcomers showed some real spirit and that was amazing to see. Thanks for welcoming my best bud Exile and showing him the Sweet Bell way. Happy sbd. See you guys in the next one. :)

boby: 2. giuliano.

you had a bomb-ass cup tower, like goddamn. did y'all see that?? whoohh. you consistently made great quality contest submissions and really showed your spirit. we hope to see you placing highly at future sweet bell days, and have little doubt that you will. It was an honor to see you at work.

mingia99:

boby: 1. jack lance.

you've blown away every other competitor, both in the competition, and for the winner of the day itself. You consistently brought creative twists to every aspect of the day, were very active in call, and tried the hardest out of anyone for sure. This is the first time anyone has ever won both sweet bell day AND the competition, so this day for sure is one for the record books.

Jack Lance: :smiley: heeeey thakns you guys are my #1 too boby: 48. kley.

jack: 47. sophia.
you don't know how discord works. we don't appreciate the negativity that was radiating from you in the last hour of the day. the only reason you're above kleyna is because you're a girl jack: 45. ben wonder.

got off work right to impress us, but nothing too special, sorry if we missed anything lol whoops

HomieRicky: For a number of years now, work has been proceeding in order to bring perfection to the crudely conceived idea of a transmission that would not only supply inverse reactive current for use in unilateral phase detractors, but would also be capable of automatically synchronizing cardinal grammeters. Such an instrument is the turbo encabulator.

Now basically the only new principle involved is that instead of power being generated by the relative motion of conductors and fluxes, it is produced by the modal interaction of magneto-reluctance and capacitive diractance.

The original machine had a base plate of pre-famulated amulite surmounted by a malleable logarithmic casing in such a way that the two spurving bearings were in a direct line with the panametric fan. The latter consisted simply of six hydrocoptic marzlevanes, so fitted to the ambifacient lunar waneshaft that side fumbling was effectively prevented.

The main winding was of the normal lotus-o-delta type placed in panendermic semi-boloid slots of the stator, every seventh conductor being connected by a non-reversible tremie pipe to the differential girdle spring on the "up" end of the grammeters.

The turbo-encabulator has now reached a high level of development, and it's being successfully used in the operation of novertrunnions. Moreover, whenever a forescent skor motion is required, it may also be employed in conjunction with a drawn reciprocation dingle arm, to reduce sinusoidal repleneration.

Haha gay happy sweet bell day ni:b::b:as Zorch: I had a funtime with all the great people on Sweet Bell Day 8. Although this was my first SBD and I had no idea what was going on, I quickly went with it and had such a blast. All the people were really chill and I would hang out with them anyday. The 24 challenges had me tempting to beat everyone and I love the competition with these dumb tasks. Overall, I'd love to be in the next Sweet Bell Day and if I do, I'll be sure to put my all and be the best sweet bell-ian. Cya.

Alexooli: Wow! What a day. I'm very glad I took this day off. I loved all the challenges and had a great time with all the things to do. Even though I submitted a lot for the challenges, I still feel I needed more sweet bell spirit. That doesn't subtract from th happy in the day though. you were a character as always, got engaged to maddvic. congrats. inspirational speeches, eating toothpaste, and a burning intense passion towards the heart of sbd.

Deleted User: I love Sweet Bell. I've been here since the beginning. Maybe this is your beginning. In that case, this is our beginning. Sweet Bell has always been about having a happy day and that is something me and my best friend in the whole world, Exile hold near and dear to our hearts. That being said, you are all extremely important to me. Sweet Bell wouldn't be here without all of you and I can't thank you enough. Sweet Bell shouldn't be about winning or losing, but it's all about forgetting your problems and making friends. Again, thank all of you. This has been an amazing Sweet Bell. I'll see you next time. I won't let my Sweet-Bellers down. It wasn't that bad.

you gave constant help in the discussion of game text channel, as well as being the first person to get a 200k+ score. great run. amazing sweet bell peppers gift, and sweet belllll baby had the best responses. you stayed hydrated as hell, and literally went into a random house wtf. you were an indispensable part of the spirit of sbd8.

茶Kingston茶: Was my 2nd SBD, and I had a lot more fun this time since I didn't join half-way through. Good job on the game, here's a poem as my anticipation for next year <3 (Also, shoutout to sweet bell baby)

Jack Lance, we cannot beat.

But the day remains sweet.

We :m: :a: :regional_indicator_r: :regional_indicator_k: our memes, and our smiles gleam.

With ringing bells,

Our sweetened hearts swell.

Until the day we realign,

We'll all await for Sweet Bell Day 9.

sick burns on phillip, went to the strip club, constantly went above and beyond for the challenges, even at work (and especially at work). sbd veteran from the beginning, even if he didn't know it

“this game’s better than undertale.” dope rap, literally vomited after drinking spoiled milk.

you had some intense submissions and dedication to the day/contests. between the cup fort and clean room you’ve got it all. and you took a picture with an actual girl!!!!

gulo: thank you very much boby jack andrew and everyone...love u for doing this great day jack: 4. michael.

you're always going over the top. best one liners the whole pre-party. spicing things up with the constant videos. you displayed an uncommon mastery of uncovering the deeply hidden secrets of sweet bell day the game, and you were the first person to complete it!!!!

Congratulations!!! you worked your butt off in exercising your heart out, and you're an improv god. sbd8 wouldnt have been the same without you michael: thanks guys follow me on twitter jack: 3. baconlover.

endless compliments on the game, lots of praise for sbd. you had a commitment to togethertube even while playing intense sections of the game, and had amazing reactions to world 5. clearing world 5 within two hours of release is something to be proud of. you were the 3rd person to clear the game. great job! you had constant dedication, and pushed for everyone to stay up. you literally did not leave call throughout the entire night. great callbacks to pre-party. you sacrificed your life for sbd, went through the cold, ate cake for breakfast, got no sleep. you exemplify what we look for in an sbd participant.

the man needs no introduction. unreal OC, amazing challenges, no mic no problem. you went hard af at the game, pioneering speedrun tactics above all others. you always know how to surprise us

oops

i mean (:

jack: 1. ash (sweet bell boy).

you developed some serious skills at sweet bell day the game, changed your name to boby, participated in challenges with serious editing, woke your mom up at 3:30 to spread the spirit, pushed for boby to stay up, and went insane with the challenges. not only were you

one of the most active people in the challenges, but your submissions were consistently high quality. you are the prime example of someone who sees sweet bell day from the outside, and then tackles it head on without knowing nearly anything before. you were a pleasure to be around in and out of call, and we can't wait to see what you bring to future sweet bell days.

ash: sweet bells and sweet boys, i'd like to say thank you for an impactful 24 hours of tasteful challenges and badly timed mic spams. this was my first sweet bell day and i had no clue what to expect but i loved it.

i'd like to give a congratulations to jack lance, and i can't wait to face him again in the next sweet bell day. (im hopin 4 a gd TIE u best BELIEVE im comin for u).

you're all winners in my eyes. except maybe sophia idk who u are but u were loud.

bobby, glad i stalked ur youtube channel n sent u an uncalled for discord message abt ur sbd video. thank u for introducing me to this happy day n thanks jack for gettin shit done.
