

National Latin Honor Society Pledge

Consul :

Salvete, omnes. Would the Latin students please stand and walk to the stairs of the stage.

Latina Honoris Societatis, condita abhinc quinquaginta annos, celebrat optimam laborem discipulorum et discipularum Latinae et eorum studium linguae antiquae. Hi discipuli et hae discipulae, qui inducti sunt hac nocte, obtinebant nonaginta media in Latina Tres aut Latina Quattuor. Gradlaciones omnibus!

Good evening, everyone,

The Latin Honor Society, founded over 50 years ago, celebrates the outstanding performances of Latin scholars and their enthusiasm for the ancient language. The students who have been inducted tonight, have earned at least 90% in Latin Three or Latin Four. Congratulations to all!

Consul,

Here are this year's recipients, please hold your applause until all names have been called. Hi sunt acceptores. Venite hic. Latin scholars, please join us on the stage as your name is called.

The student inductees are: (Consul/ student: read the names of the new members)

Consul:

Acceptores, redicite apud me. Pledges, please repeat after me:

Promitto servare et sustinere ordinationes et iussa Latinae Honoris Societatis. Ego ero membrum fides huius societatis, et servabo dignitate et honore.

I promise to serve and to uphold the rules and the laws of the National Latin Honor Society. I will be a faithful member of this society and I will serve with dignity and honor.

Gratias omones. Thank you everyone. (Consul clap for students as sign crowd should clap too.)

Latin Inductees congratulations you may take your certificate and flower and return to your seats.
