Abstract

The abstract is written in English, with a maximum of 150–250 words for each language. The abstract is written in one paragraph, using clear, concise, and informative language. The abstract must contain at least: (1) the background or research problem, (2) the research objectives, (3) the research method, (4) the research results, and (5) the conclusions or implications of the research. The abstract is not permitted to contain quotations, footnotes, tables, figures, or bibliographies. The abstract uses Times New Roman 11 pt font, single-spaced, and justified. The abstract must provide a complete picture of the substance of the article so that it can be understood without reading the entire manuscript.

Keywords: consisting of 3–5 words or phrases, written after the abstract and separated by a semicolon (;). Keywords should reflect the main concept or focus of the research.
