

Discovering Jesus Together

Anyone Can Do This

What are the prerequisites to sharing Jesus with someone else who doesn't know Him yet?

See for yourself:

- Luke 8:26-39
- John 9:1-34
- John 4:1-42
- John 1:43-46
- Acts 4:13

Respectful, low pressure invitation ideas:

- I've been thinking about reading the Bible for more wisdom. Would you be interested in joining me? Who do you know who might want to join us?
- Have you ever read the actual teachings of Jesus? I've been thinking about discussing them with a few of us. Want to be part of that? Who else could we invite?
- I've been discovering some things in the Bible that have really challenged and encouraged me. Do you want to join me? Who else do you think might enjoy exploring it with us?

Big idea: ~~Anyone~~ You can do this.

Challenge: What if Discovery Bible Study with others is way more doable than I thought? Why not try it?

DIGGING DEEPER QUESTIONS

This week is designed as a simple time of discovery in God's Word that anyone can lead. See if you can have someone new to ask each of the questions below.

First, if applicable, if you had a challenge or application step from last week, how did it go?

What are you thankful for this week?

What is a challenge you're facing?

As a group, pick one of these passages to discover together:

- Luke 8:26-39 — Jesus sets us free and we tell others
- John 9:1-34 — We don't have all the answers, but we see differently now
- John 4:1-42 — Our lives aren't perfect, but this is what we're looking for

Read the passage outloud and then, as a group, retell what you remember in your own words.

What parts stand out the most and why?

What can we learn about Jesus here?

What do we learn about human nature and ourselves?

What will you do in light of this? Try to state this as a simple, doable action with an "I will" statement. Write down what you share then ask how it went next week.

Who needs to hear about any of this? Take a moment to pray for them together.
