FAQ:

(For Answer and Question!!)

Q: Az, I dont understand this guide?

A: feel free to contact me. (see category above)

Q: Can I canceled my commission?

A: You better have a good reason for it and you might get cancelation fee.

The cancellation fee will follow this formula (based on the progression) :

0 - 25% : no cancellation fee - checkpoint: initial sketch

25 - 50% : 50% of the commission fee - checkpoint : rough + basic color / value

50% - 99.99% : 75% of the commission fee - checkpoint : final artwork

100% : 100% of the commission fee

If you pass check point that means you are on the next tier.

Q: So just cancelation fee, right?

A: Aye and ... I will send you my personal fiendish grudge. >:(

* If you cancel a lot, it will definitely affect our future business. I might even blacklist you from my service. So cancel it at your own risk.

Q: Do you accept a non adult / mature commission?

A: Yeap, that just the other side of me.

Q: Your price is too high! Other artist can draw better with less price as yours.

A: My price is based on my process. Basically YOU PAY FOR MY TIME to do on your commission. NOT FOR THE ARTWORK. You can take my artwork but you can't take my time. Comprende? If you like their better, then why you even here, mortal?

Q: Will you offer some sale for your commission?

A: It depend on the occassion. I might do sale on holiday such as Black Friday Sale, Christmas, Halloween, others or even special moment in my life. Including this Opening Commission, if you send me I like big bulge and I cannot lie when I confirm your submission slot, I will give you ten percent less. So just keep following my journal and my galleries. It will pop up one day. Patient is friend and it can lead you to prosperity, mortal.

Q: So what do I need to get commission from you?

A: Character(s) and idea (... and money)

Q: What I don't have some of the of them?

A: It might cost you extra but it can be done.

Q: I'm an artist and I don't have any money... do you do art trade or colab?

A: I won't do it often but I will do it but only under certain circumstances. One of them is I only do it with friends or if you are an artist that I follow. Others, you need to discover it.

Q: Where is the picture explanation?

A: It still in the making. I just rush this in 1 week. I will be up for the next commission or maybe less.

Q: My question isn't even here!

A: Just send your question to me I will answer it for you.
