

ENGLISH 1201 HOMEWORK PAGE

Google Classroom Code: y6txneyn

Thu, Sept 4th

Students collaborated on class expectations for each other and their teacher. Students then wrote responses to Banksy's graffiti art in Gaza. For those who missed class, the image is in the Written Responses section of Google Classroom. Please complete it for homework. (Est. time: 15 minutes).

Mon, Sept 8th

The class read the poem "Warren Pryor" and discussed themes of identity and social class. No homework.

Tue, Sept 9th

Students worked on short answer questions for "Warren Pryor" using the RACE strategy. No homework.

Fri, Sept 12th

Students continue work on short answer questions for "Warren Pryor." Work must be submitted by beginning of class, Monday, Sept 15th. Digital work must be handed in on Google Classroom. Students also received a Song and Identity assignment. That assignment is due Wednesday, Sept 17th.

Mon, Sept 15th

"Warren Pryor" short answer assignment due today. "Song and Identity" assignment due by beginning of class on Wednesday, Sept 17th.

Wed, Sept 17th

Students submitted the first part of their "Song and Identity" assignment. The class playlist was created. Students will work on the second part of their "Song and Identity" assignment next class. Revisions to "Warren Pryor" short answer questions may be resubmitted for an improved grade.

Thu, Sept 18th

Revisions to "Warren Pryor" short answer questions were submitted for an improved grade. Students worked on the second part of their "Song and Identity" assignment. Due beginning of class, Tue, Sept 23rd.

Wed, Sept 24th

Students worked on short answer questions for the poem, "Monster." No more class time. Assignment due Wed, Oct 1st.

Mon, Oct 6th

Students wrote a quiz on Alistair MacLeod's "The Boat" and began short answer questions. Work will continue next class.

Thu, Oct 9th

Students continued work Alistair MacLeod's "The Boat." Due Monday, Oct 12th.

Tue, Oct 14th

Students were introduced to our first novel study: Frankenstein. Students compiled background information on the novel in a shared slideshow. No homework.

Wed, Oct 15th

Students were to complete their background information on the novel for our shared slideshow. Unfinished work should be finished tonight. Students started Letter 1 of Volume 1 of Frankenstein.

Thu, Oct 16th

The class read letters two to four of Volume I of Frankenstein. The first short answer question of the Study Questions should be completed before next class.

Mon, Oct 20th

The class read Frankenstein, Ch 1. No homework.

Wed, Oct 22nd

The class read Frankenstein, Ch 2. No homework.

Thu, Oct 23rd

The class read Frankenstein, Ch 3. No homework.

Fri, Oct 24th

The class read Frankenstein, Ch 4. No homework. (Though it is recommended that students keep up with quotations and short answer questions.)

Mon, Oct 27th

The class read Frankenstein, Ch 5. No homework. (Though it is recommended that students keep up with quotations and short answer questions.)

Wed, Oct 29th

The class read Frankenstein, Ch 5. No homework. (Though it is recommended that students keep up with quotation and short answer questions.)

Fri, Nov 28th

The class has read Frankenstein up to Vol III, Chapter 5. No homework. (Though it is recommended that students keep up with quotation and short answer questions.)

Thu, Dec 4th

The class read Frankenstein, Vol III, Ch 6. Reminder to work on quotation and short answer questions. Also, letter from parents due tomorrow (Friday).

Fri, Dec 5th

The class read Frankenstein, Vol III, Ch 7. Reminder to work on quotation and short answer questions.

Mon, Dec 8th

The class read Frankenstein, Vol III, Ch 7 up to p. 205. Reminder to work on quotation and short answer questions.