

Amber's Terms of service

The artist will be referred to as 'we' and 'us'. the client will be referred to as "they" and "them"

Updated: October 2025

- Any art, past or future, should not be fed into an AI learning machine or be reproduced using AI
- Money will only be received from people older than 16y old
- Payment via Paypal invoice or PayPal goods and services
- All conversations would preferably be held in Discord. This promises smooth communication
- We are allowed to cancel the commission for any reason. The client will get their money back after they are informed
- The client cannot ask for their money back or redo the art once finished.
- All money should be paid in EURO (€).
- Full payment is required before we start working on the artwork. In special circumstances a payment plan can be arranged.
- We are able to ask for more money if the client requests major changes on the later stages of the process
- Species we can draw are: cats, dogs, ponies and anything with the same anatomy
- We do not draw humans , antros , countryhuman or anything similar/fandom based
- Only OC's that belongs to the client or has permission to use
- We will not draw anything NSFW and will not answer if the client requests it.
- We are allowed to say no to any request although chances are slim when following these terms.
- (animation only) The characters must be easy to animate, simple hairstyle and simple coloring
- All commissions are for private use and should not be printed (unless given permission), copied or reposted
- we will retain copyrights to the artwork
- We wish for the client to have some experiences in commissioning artists but is not required. Any questions are welcome.
- We can change these terms of service anytime but that doesn't affect running commissions

*They will be notified throughout the process and asked if things need to be changed. They are able to ask for progress when not provided.

Artwork may be reposted with our permission and full credit
