This man is wearing a hat with a blue shirt and he has hair and eyes.

Did you read the prompt under the picture? What question would you want to ask him?

It looks like it's in venice (but apparently it's in berlin) The artist seems to be sitting on the roof unless he's doing it from memory or something. +

It's a tiger in a jungle looking very mean and angry but he also seems weird because he has a veryyyy long and very skinny tale and his head is a bit weird but i mean you can tell he's a tiger.

Cool. If you had to describe the mood in this painting, what would you say?

September 29th 2017

It is a painting of a lake and a bank and a little island and some trees.

October 6th 2017

It seems to be a sunset over the sea with a little island far away!

October 20th 2017

It is a night sky with trees and some sort of field with a fence!

This painting is a house in woods. It has a lot of blue and seems very like dreamlike kind of? It is also on a hill. You can tell people are living inside because there is light in the windows and there's a lot of grey so it's like they're inside being warm and cozy while there's like a storm outside!
