

Book Study focused on Deep Learning or Mentorship

Description

Start or participate in a book study focused on deep learning, leadership or coaching. If your learning style is to read educational books and have rich discussions with peers then this is the badge for you!

Minds-on

Book study groups allow for rich conversations between educators that often leads to the application of new ideas in the classroom and improvement of existing skills writes Sally J. Zepeda. Please read more about her thoughts on educational book study groups here:

<http://www.educationworld.com/admin/book-study-groups-why-and-how.shtml>

Action

Looking for something to read? Here are a few suggestions:

Here are some suggested books on Deep Learning:

- Deeper Learning: How Eight Innovative Public Schools Are Transforming Education in the Twenty-First Century, Monica Martinez
- Indelible Leadership: Always Leave Them Learning, Michael Fullan
- Innovator's Mindset, George Couros

Here are some suggested books on Coaching:

- Co-Active Coaching, Henry Kimsey-House, Karen Kimsey-House and Phillip Sandahl
- Leading Change, John P. Kotter
- Fierce Conversations, Susan Scott
- When Mentoring Meets Coaching, Kate Sharpe and Jeanie Nishimura
- Having Hard Conversations, Jennifer Abrams
- The Mentor's Guide, Lois J. Zachary

Consolidation

Reflecting individually or as a group about the main ideas and their impact on your teaching will help to keep things focused and increase the shared learning.

Share your Learning

It's time to share your learning journey with others. Please submit the Google Form to claim your badge. Tweet out a picture of your classroom invite, the resources you created to collect feedback or maybe a reflection on the whole experience. Please remember to use the hashtag #ocsbdl