

Goolsby, Walter W.-3 of 3

[Speaker 1]

After I get a recap of all of the information I've brought here today, I'll start with the last piece of information I have. The service we had on September 11th, the other day, the first day, there wasn't much talking, so we didn't have a voice, but anyway, I can't tell you exactly who it was. I've brought all of the information, all of the details, the list of all the information that I've just submitted to the White House and the United States, so that they can use it.

If I can send proof of that, I'll do that first. We can't do that. So, thank you for your patience.

I totally agree with the point that you made, Mr. Kelly, which was the first one. I mean, there's a lot of things that I want to say, but I totally agree with the point that you made there, Mr. Kelly, and I'm glad you came out of that. But, what about our receipts?

Our winning receipts? Now, the reservation is $1,576. For the front reservation, we received $928.

So the cap, I have to give $3,905 for the cap. We're going to do a bargain on the $3,905, if we don't. And then on the other, $6,300 for the cap.

If we don't want to put in the cost, we're going to have to get rid of it. And there's the cost of those orders. Anyway, we received an order for 52 caps at $310.

54 t-shirts at $207. And then the list, we've got 40 pairs there. So we have a total.

And we'll have $10,000 for each of those t-shirts. So I have a total of $1,400. And I'm not going to give it to you.

So thank you very much for being here. I appreciate it. Thank you for everything you've done for us.

Thank you very much. Today, ladies and gentlemen. Dr. Douglas Reed is proving the facts. He's serving the cost of the t-shirt, the cost of the cap, the cost of the t-shirt. He's serving the expenses for the reunion, the down payment, the home loan, the $264,000, the books, the $119,000, the envelopes, the paper strings, the open slide, the station badges, the books, all of it, the $105,000, the total is $80,000. Thank you for all that you've done.

I'm going to quote a few other small things if you want to do that. But the first $30,000 is just that. Now, at the present time, James Carlin is the candidate for hospitality.

I don't think we should have named him. Thank you. Thank you very much.

I want to mention one other thing. We have three speakers. I don't want to mention three names.

That's fine. So we have a number of speakers. If you have any questions on this, I'll give them to you.

I don't know if there are any questions you have. Once all is said and done, we've been waiting so long to get three speakers. I know it happens to a lot of people.

It's a hard thing to do. That's what I'm saying. It's a hard thing to do.

It's a hatred. It's a lot of blood. It's a shame.

It's a shame. It's crazy. It's crazy.

These are not children. I've been there. We started down there.

And we have traveled 100 miles down the road. I looked over and I watched. And I did not want to have this go cry.

I reflected on the words. And that's today. ***APPLAUSE*** Now, I want this to be the last thing that a 20-year-old has to say tonight.

I want to thank the people who have always determined to be here, who have determined to put their lives on the public's hands today. I want to thank Bill and his wife for filing papers and stuff like that. I want to thank Bill Frank for doing the reporting, Arthur and his team for organizing this interview for us, for the work that they wanted to do, and for the help that they helped us with, the Westman Hotel in New Hampshire, and Rudy Brewer for helping us.

And Bill Wolfson, I'm sorry to yell about that. We couldn't, we could not have had this job without him. There's no way we could have found it without him.

John James was on the business board, and they've had about five of these meetings. It's interesting because I've never seen him in 15 years. It's pretty sad.

They've had about 15 or 20 couples all the way up there. Bill Wolfson's the reason, Bill, that we're trying to do this. I don't want to say anything about any of these things today.

I just want to thank Bill and his team for everything they've done for us. Also, I want to thank Bill's team. How many of you took pictures with Bill in Chicago?

Did you watch that video? We can ask Bill. So he's going to tell us a bit.

We're trying to get Bill to come. He called, and he's like, please.

[Speaker 2]
Please, Bill.

[Speaker 1]
Please, Bill. My kids, my wife, my wife. My son, my daughter, my son.

My wife, my daughter, my son. My granddaughter. They've helped me.

They've been kind to me. I want to thank my wife. I want to thank my wife.

I want to thank Bill. I want to thank Bill. Thank you.

I hope they will help you, Bill. Thank you all so much. And remember now, the rest of the day, Please do what you like to help each other, and there's no compression in that.

Whether it's a knife, or a book, or a notebook, it's true. We have a life center for some of you. These days, lately, it's quite difficult to get the divisions together in one group, like old divisions in one group.

We have a group that's quite secure over here.
