Introduction

Written in 12pt Cambria font with single spacing. The introduction presents the background, problem statement, activity objectives, and literature review in a sequential and interrelated manner. The background section can be done by quantitatively describing the picture, profile, and conditions of the target audience involved in the community service activity. In addition, the condition and potential of the area can also be described from a physical, social, economic, and environmental perspective that is relevant to the activity being carried out. Also describe the potential that is used as material for the community service activity. The problem statement is described concretely and clearly. Describe the objectives to be achieved in the community service activity.

The literature review is written to support the concept of community service. The description of the literature review presentation is sourced from primary sources such as journal article references and conference proceedings and the latest published within the last 10 years. The literature review section is not limited to theory alone, but also empirical evidence. The introduction also describes the efforts that have been carried out by other parties. This article is the result of community service which is a downstream of research results, can be the results of the research itself or other researchers. The use of references is a maximum of 7 years ago. The citation format uses APA 7.

Methods

Written in 12-point Cambria font with single spacing, the research methods section presents a sequential and interrelated description of the methods used to achieve the stated objectives of the community service activity. It also explains the measuring instruments used and how the activity's success rate is measured.

Results and Discussion

Written in 12-point Cambria font with single spacing. The results section presents the results of the activity and analysis related to the activity's objectives. The discussion section provides an explanation of the results and comparisons with theories and/or other relevant research/community service results. The results and discussion sections are not separated into subsections.

References should be used within the past seven years, maximum. Citation format is APA 7. Subsection titles should be written in 12-point Cambria font, single-spaced, and bold.

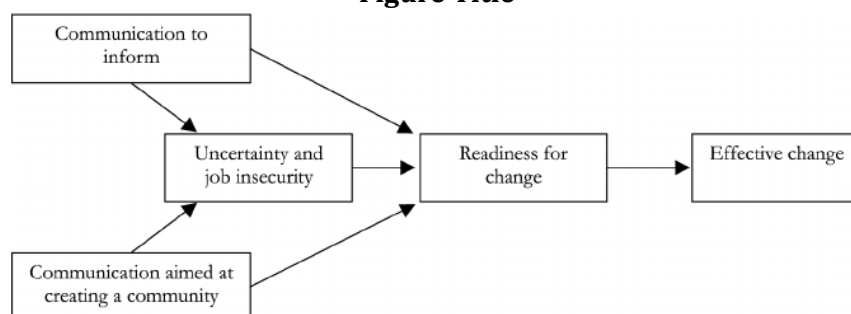

The titles and contents of tables, graphs, charts, and figures should be written in 10-point Cambria font, single-spaced, and bold. Table and figure titles should be above the table and arranged sequentially, such as Table 1, Table 2, etc. Each table should include its reference or source, as illustrated below:
