"We believe that knowledge and information should be free and accessible to everyone around the globe. There are many developing countries where you cannot easily buy your favorite books. They are literally out of reach of many people. We also believe it should be really simple and easy to download your desired PDF or EPUB e-book. There should be no sign up required, no membership registration needed, and no annoying ads or pop-ups. You should get what you want. Nice and easy. That's why we built this site."

"Planet Publish caters to anyone and everyone with an interest in eBooks – the books themselves have been taken from our very own Planet PDF website which caters for professional Web or print publishers seeking appropriate tools, to rank beginners wondering exactly what "PDF" stands for."
